PRICES OF FURS WILL BE HIGHER

Prediction Made at Great Annual Auction in St. Louis, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 2.—Prices of furs will be decidedly higher next Winter, according to buyers attending the Winter auction of the International Fur Exchange here, which opened to-day.

More than 600 buyers from all parts of the world are in attendance. More than 15,000,000 pelts, valued at approximately $25,000,000, will be disposed of during the sale.

The prospective increase in prices is assigned to the embargo placed on higher grades of furs by Australia and to the Bolshevik uprising in Russia, which, it is said, virtually has paralyzed the fur trade in that country.

Sealskins

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 2.—The first 5,000 pelts of Alaska sealskins from the Government rookeries on the Pribyloff Islands offered at the mid-Winter sale of the international fur exchange here to-day brought an average of $156 a pelt, and it was estimated that the 9,000 skins would be sold and bring a total of $1,394,000. All of them will be disposed of to-day.

Prices are about the same as those obtained last Fall, although it was predicted that they would be much higher.

Men now on the strength of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-Establishment, undergoing treatment or retraining and eligible for this form of assistance, are required to make application for such within two months from date of completion of retraining course or discharge from treatment.

PLACARDS ADVISE AGAINST PROFANITY

Thorold, Ont., Feb. 2.—Bad language is taboo in this town. Placards signed by Mayor Edward P. Foley have been posted up in conspicuous places as follows:

WHEAT PRODUCTION IN FRANCE FALLS OFF

Paris, Feb. 2.—(Havas.)—Production of wheat must be increased in France, according to newspapers commenting upon yesterday's meeting of the Council of Ministers, at which the situation relative to cereals was discussed. It is said the acreage sowed this year is less than that seeded in 1914, and that the French Government will not be able to continue making up the difference between the price fixed for wheat and that paid for bread.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK CAUSED LONG TREMOR

Was Probably in South America; Record at Gonzales Observatory

Chicago, Feb. 2.—The United States Government seismograph at Chicago University recorded the most pronounced earthquake in months this morning. The shocks, which were still continuing at 8.45 o'clock, were heavier even than the recent Mexican upheaval.

The first shock was recorded at 5.42 o'clock, and the maximum was reached at 7.40.

Georgetown Seismograph.

Washington, Feb. 2.—A severe earthquake lasting more than two hours and centred between 3,300 and 3,800 miles from Washington, was recorded early to-day on the Georgetown University seismograph. The shocks began at 6.42 a. m., reached the maximum at about 8 o'clock and ceased at 9.03 o'clock.

The Victoria report on the severe earthquake is one of the most continuous on record, commencing at 3.36 to record the earth tremor on the seismograph at Gonzales Observatory, and reaching its maximum at 4.10 o'clock. The disturbance of the instrument continued for about four hours.

Superintendent Denison considers the distance about 6,000 miles away, in South America, probably south of the Equatorial line.

WOULD MODIFY VERSAILLES TREATY

Sir George Paish Urges German Indemnity Be Made Smaller

Toronto, Feb. 2.—Sir George Paish, the eminent British financial authority, who has been in this city several days, addressed the Open Forum here Sunday afternoon. He said he had recently visited Germany and the people there were on the verge of starvation. Credit should be given to Germany, he said, to prevent anarchy, as there was great misery in Germany, and her people were on the verge of starvation.

Sir George intimated that in his opinion the Treaty of Versailles should be modified in order to make it practicable for Germany to pay her indemnities, the size of which had taken all hope out of that country.

"If you ask her to pay more than she is able to pay," Sir George asserted, "you will get nothing."

SLOCAN DISTRICT RICH IN PROMISE

Chas. F. Nelson, M. P. P., Moves Address in Reply This Afternoon

Urges Roads For Constituency As Means to Economic Progress

Legislative Press Gallery, February 2.

Matters immediately affecting the Slocan district took a large share of the speech delivered by Charles F. Nelson, Liberal member for Slocan, in the Legislature this afternoon.

To Mr. Nelson fell the lot of moving the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne and in so doing he took his colleagues on an extensive survey of the various activities of the Government during the period which has transpired since the House last met. Referring particularly, however, to his own district, the Member for Slocan informed the House that mining development, owing to the high price of silver, had made steady progression, placing Slocan once again in the lead for the production of this metal. At the present time, he said, the output of the locality exceeded 52 per cent. of the total production of the Province, and he looks forward to an even greater development in the near future.

Potential Riches.

"The Slocan district," explained Mr. Nelson, "does not confine its activities to mining, as there is in the Slocan Valley an extensive agricultural section, not only producing excellent results at the present time, but also capable of expansion as soon as additional roads are made to enhance the opportunities awaiting new settlers. Until there is better connection with the outside world and shipping points, however, it is difficult for the people of that country to do anything more than improve its present conditions by closer co-operation with the farming element."

The Member for Slocan was pleased to observe in the Speech from the Throne the mention of highway legislation, and in connection with the trunk road system, the contemplated trans-provincial highway particularly, he desired to draw to the attention of the House a proposal for a new route through the Interior. Notwithstand the prospect of opposition to his plan by advocates of other routes, Mr. Nelson voiced the opinion that a connecting link from Nelson to the Okanagan, thence to the Slocan district and on to Vernon would possess manifold advantages to which very little consideration appeared to have been given up to the present time.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—A telegram was received in this city yesterday stating that T. Montagu Lovatt, who was on his way to New Zealand via Britain to make his home there, had died on board the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, of influenza. During the last epidemic of that disease in this city, Mr. Lovatt and his wife had been untiring workers for those then afflicted, the husband making a feature of attending to the fires in homes where the families had no other help for the furnace.

Berlin About to be Asked to Hand Over a Number for Trial

Council of Ambassadors Has Completed List of Germans to be Extradited and It Will Be Forwarded to Germany

Paris, Feb. 2.—The list of German subjects whose extradition is demanded by the Allies was finally approved by the Council of Ambassadors to-day. The Council also approved the terms of the note to accompany the list. A drafting committee was charged with the drawing up of the note.

The Council made application for the admission of the Belgian Ambassador to its meetings on the ground of Belgium's proximity to Germany and her participation in the occupation of the Rhineland, and it was decided to invite him to attend the Council meetings when Belgian interests were in question.

The Petit Parisien says to-day that it is expected Germany will resist the Allies' demand for Germans to be extradited and placed on trial and that the Peace Conference probably will be forced to consider further action and at the same time examine different violations of the conditions of the armistice and peace treaty by Germany.

Hollweg and Tirpitz.

Paris, Feb. 2.—In addition to already published lists of those who will be demanded from Germany by the Allies on charges of violations of the laws of war, The Matin said this morning, Belgium would ask for Dr. Theodald Bethmann-Hollweg, former Imperial German Chancellor, while Britain would demand Von Tirpitz, Admiral Reinhardt, Von Schier, commander of the German fleet in the Battle of Jutland, and Prince Oscar of Prussia, fifth son of the Former Kaiser.

SCIENCE ACADEMY TO ACT AS JUDGE

French Academy Thinks Communication With Other Planet Possible

Paris, Feb. 2.—The Academy of Science evidently considers communication between the earth and planets among the possibilities, for it has undertaken to act as judge for a prize of 100,000 francs to be given for the best means of making a sign to a heavenly body and the receipt of a reply.

It has been the custom of the Academy always to refuse to handle prizes for any feat which it considers a mere waste of time. In presenting the present prize for competition, the Academy makes the proviso that the planet Mars is included as being sufficiently known.

"Until a solution is obtained," says the Academy's announcement, "the interest of the prize money will form a prize for scientists making the greatest progress in knowledge of the planets and their relation to the earth."

By Light.

London, Feb. 2.—Professor Albert Finstein, the German astronomer whose theory that gravitation deflects the rays of light recently has been the subject of considerable discussion, in an interview with The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent asserted that he believed that the mysterious signals referred to by Signor Marconi as having been heard on various wireless sets are due either to atmospheric disturbances or to experiments with other systems of wireless.

Professor Einstein, who believes that Mars and other planets are inhabited, added that if intelligent creatures on other planets tried to communicate with the earth, he would expect them to use rays of light, which could be much more easily controlled.

1918 DEATH RATE IN U. S. 1.8 PER CENT

Influenza and Pneumonia Added Greatly to That Year's Deaths

Washington, Feb. 2.—The death rate in the United States in 1918 was the highest on record, according to the Census Bureau's annual mortality statistics, issued to-day, which show 1,471,367 deaths during the year, representing a rate of 18 per 1,000 of population in the death registration area of thirty states and twenty-seven cities with a total estimated population of 81,868,104.

Of the total deaths, 477,467, or over thirty-two per cent., were due to influenza and pneumonia, 380,996 having occurred in the last four months of the year, when an epidemic of these diseases prevailed.

The other principal causes of deaths were organic diseases of the heart, tuberculosis, acute nephritis, Bright's disease and cancer, which, together were responsible for 391,391 deaths, or nearly 27 per cent. of the total during the year.

MR. ASQUITH IS AIDED BY DAUGHTER

Interest of Public in By-election in Paisley, Scotland, Grows

London, Feb. 2.—(Canadian Press).—Disraeli's advice to "keep your eye on Paisley," is being just now intently followed and interest in ex-Premier Asquith's contest grows every day.

The speaking campaign is engaging both sexes this week. Lady Astor, the only sitting woman Member of Parliament so far, will be on the Coalition platform, and the Labor candidate has secured the assistance of the Countess of Warwick, whose political prominence is entirely due to her advocacy of Socialism. These ladies will not be too early in the field, for Mr. Asquith's cause has already got a long start through the witty speeches of his daughter, Lady Bonham-Carter, who is next to the ex-Prime Minister in strong personality and perestige, as the correspondent of The Observer declares.

U.S. Senate Will Debate Treaty Again Next Week

Washington, Feb. 2.—A renewal of the Senate debate on the Treaty of Versailles next week was regarded as virtually assured to-day when Republican leaders decided to join with the Democrats in the movement to bring the treaty back into the open Senate.

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, planned to give notice to-day that he would move on next Monday to suspend the rules and proceed to consideration of the treaty.

The Democrats already had announced that they would make a similar motion Tuesday of next week.

Grey's Letter.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The letter of Viscount Grey to The London Times, dealing with the attitude of the United States in regard to the League of Nations, has created a profound impression here.

In this letter, which was printed by The New York Times yesterday, and is reprinted in many papers this morning by permission of The Times, Lord Grey asserts that his observation regarding the American attitude ar[illegible]rely his personal vi[illegible] strong [illegible]ief ha[illegible] Irishm[illegible] ted it to the London Foreign Office and members of the British Cabinet. The point of vital interest in the letter, as seen here, is the statement by Viscount Grey that he would be willing to accept the treaty with the reservations proposed by Senator Lodge, which have been the bone of contention in the long and bitter partisan fight upon the treaty in the Senate.

BRIG.-GEN. ODLUM COMES TO VICTORIA

To Tell Government About Ottawa Trip Regarding Soldier Settlement

Vancouver, Feb. 2.—That success had attended his effort to bring about a basis of co-operation between the Provincial Government and the Federal Soldier Settlement Board with a view to creating settlement opportunities this year for 4,000 returned men anxious to go on the land in British Columbia was announced by Brigadier-General Victor Odlum, D. S. O., on his return from Ottawa yesterday. The precise details of the basis General Odlum did not divulge, but he stated confidently that certain of the difficulties in the way of complete co-operation had been wiped out. He went on to Victoria to-day to report to the Oliver Government the outcome of his mission.

New Colonies.

It is apparent from the general's remarks that group settlement is to be carried further, and that several new colonies such as Courtenay and Creston may be expected to be opened up this year.

"One of the Dominion Government's objections to schemes having a purely provincial origin is that in making loans the Soldier Settlement Board must insist upon qualified men," said General Odlum. "It is obvious, therefore, that if the Province employs men at improving these areas with a view to their becoming settlers ultimately, the Province must deal only with men previously accepted as qualified by the Soldier Settlement Board qualification boards. Otherwise the time would come when these men would fail to obtain loans and knowledge and experience gained in the development work would be lost."

ASKS PATENT FOR ENERGY PRODUCER

Hubbard, Seattle Youth, Applies at Washington; Describes Invention

Washington, Feb. 2.—Alfred M. Hubbard, the nineteen-year-old Seattle inventor, has filed his application for a patent on his atmospheric power generator, that if it fulfils his claims, will junk every steam and gas engine in the world. The first story of his remarkable invention, which appears to seize electrical energy out of the air and of itself and without the interposition of exciting power, was printed in Seattle on December 16.

Simultaneously with filing his claim here Mr. Hubbard, through a firm of patent lawyers he has retained in this city, took steps to protect his invention in all foreign countries.

Mr. Hubbard, accompanied by his friend Fred R. Backster, also of Seattle, who came with him to Washington, have left for home.

Avoided Publicity.

Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Backster, who arrived here January 18, lodged quietly at a medium priced hotel and avoided all publicity. The acquaintances they formed had no idea of their mission, which was to obtain protection of the patent laws for the invention as quietly and as expeditiously as possible. Even their patent lawyers did not at first realize the stupendous claims involved in the patent application. The filing of the claim and application now insures protection and the necessity for secrecy is ended.

Before the application was filed the patent attorneys made thorough search of the files of the Patent Office, without finding any claim that even approaches the character of the Hubbard invention.

No question is raised of the patentability of the device. Hence it is considered that the granting of the patent will be a mere formality although the date of its granting cannot be predicted because the Patent Office is far behind with its work and the routine is slow. The actual patent may not be issued for six months.

For Useful Work.

In the formal language of the application, Mr. Hubbard sets forth that "my invention relates to a method of and apparatus for accumulating electrical energy and a purpose of my invention is the provision of a method and apparatus of this character which will of itself and without the application of external power of any character, either mechanical, chemical or electrical, deliver electrical energy of sufficient potential to perform useful work."

It is a broad claim, but in the opinion of the patent attorneys, meets all the requirements of the law.

Description.

The specifications set forth in the patent application are long and detailed, referring constantly to the drawings which accompany them.

Summarizing them, Mr. Hubbard described his invention as follows:

"It consists of a coil composed of a brass spool, wound as follows First, a layer of copper wire next to the shell of the core; second, eight small, wire-bound copper coils set around the circumference of the layer of copper wire; third, another layer of copper wire enclosing the eight coils. The core of the larger coil is composed of tungsten steel.

"The cores of the eight smaller coils are composed of the same material. Each of these eight smaller coils is made up of a primarily and a secondary winding of copper wire. These eight are arranged around the circumference of the larger coil in alternation, so as to bring opposite magnetic poles into juxtaposition, producing alternation in flow of the electric current.

It is my claim that this arrangement of eight smaller coils set as desirable in the larger coil will of its own and without application of any extra power and without setting it in motion in any fashion, produce electrical energy."

The whole apparatus is but six inches long by four and a half inches in circumberence, but Hubbard estimates there are between fifteen and twenty miles of wire in the windings.

INSANE GERMAN GAVE AWAY "ORDER"

Sent "Instructions" to Staff Officers to Get Army Ready

Berlin, Feb. 2.—General staff officers throughout Germany recently received a mysterious order, supposed to have come from the War Ministry, printed on official stationery and marked "Strictly Secret." It gave instructions to the officers respecting the organization and equipment of the new army units which were to be held in readiness for instantaneous mobilization. The order contained detailed directions concerning recruiting and organizing stores, aviation squads and other units and specifically ordered that 600 fliers equipped for bombing flights, should be in readiness by March 1 to break through on the West.

Some of the newspapers print the document to-day, accompanying it with a semi-official declaration that its author, a former officer, insane, was arrested Saturday and is now in a sanitarium. This declaration adds that "publication of the order might likely be construed by the Entente as a breach of the peace treaty and evidence of disloyalty," and says it therefore is given publicity for the purpose of indicating its origin.

DOMINION POLICE FORCES MERGED

Ottawa, Feb. 2. — The Dominion Police and the Royal Northwest Mounted Police both passed out of existence as far as titles were concerned, at midnight Saturday, and were merged in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, under command of Commissioner Perry, and with A. A. McLean as Financial Comptroller. The Dominion Police force was absorbed by the R.C.M.P. organization, but the Mounted Police organization remains unchanged and will be extended to cover all parts of Canada.

ONTARIO POST OFFICE CLERK SENT TO JAIL

Belleville, Ont., Feb. 2.—George Russell Dafoe, of the Trenton post office staff, was sentenced at the county court here on Saturday to the penitentiary at Kingston for three years on each of three charges of robbing registered mail passing through the Trenton post office. Dafoe's system was to open the folds of the letters without interfering with the registration marks. In some instances he stole only portions of the enclosed money.

MAJ.-GEN. TOWNSHEND ANSWERS CRITICS

Had Orders Not to Attempt to Get Out of Kut

London, Feb. 2.—Major-General Charles Townshend, the defender of Kut-el-Amara, who recently tendered his resignation to the War Office, declares in answering critics who claim that he showed lack of resolution in not attempting to fight his way out, that he refrained from such an heroic sortie because he had positive orders from General Sir John Nicol, the Mesopotamian commander-in-chief, not to make such a move. The fact that his small force was surrounded on three sides by the 1,500-feet-wide Tigris, with a network of flood trenches blocking the other exits, General Townshend declares, rendered any cutting out project a mad undertaking.

MONTREAL HAD VERY COLD JANUARY

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Montreal had twenty days of sub-zero weather in January this year, as against six in January, 1919, and the lowest drop was on the last day, when the thermometer registered twenty-three degrees below, according to the reading of the thermometer at McGill Observatory.

FORESEES ONE LARGE RAILWAY SYSTEM

Meighen Thinks Ottawa Finally May Direct All Canadian Lines

Montreal, Feb. 2.—(Canadian Press)—Speaking at the seventeenth annual dinner of the Canadian Railway Club here Saturday, Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, said in reference to nationalization of railways:

"I believe that after a lapse of years the railways running to-day under various ownerships and always becoming fewer, may mature into one great organization more or less the property and responsibility of the state."

The Minister disclaimed any intention of bringing another single mile of road under the ownership and operation of the state, but stated:

"We have reached a stage where the march of events and the stern hand of necessity compelled us to take the position and responsibilities we have assumed and the same march of events in the future might lead to further assumption of responsibility.'

Mr. Meighen further said that when the Grand Trunk was finally acquired the Government mileage would be 22,000 miles. This would be the largest railway responsibility assumed by any single organization on the face of the globe, but, he added, a country that had contributed 640,000 men in the recent great struggle for liberty did not need to quail before the task of managing thousands of miles of railway—even under a Government system.

DR. YOUNG EXPLAINS HEALTH CENTRE WORK

Interesting Addresses on Child Welfare at Duncan; Red Cross to Co-operate

Duncan, Feb. 2.—W. Dwyer, chairman of the Duncan Consolidated School Board, presided at a large meeting in the Oddfellows' Hall on Friday evening last in the interests of the child welfare and public health campaign. Mr. Dwyer briefly outlined what the school board had already done and paid tribute to the work of Mrs. Hopkins, who had inaugurated the school nurse movement and had volunteered her services for the first three months, to Miss Wilkinson who had been employed by the board for the past six months, and to the department of public health from whom the board had received every assistance and encouragement.

Teach the Child.

Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, secretary of the Women's Institutes of the Province, spoke of child welfare as the foundation of the public health movement. Children she said are so much easier to teach than grown-ups because they have no preconceived wrong ideas to eradicate. The combination of home and school and nurse will work wonders in national sanitation and personal health. Statistics show that, contrary to our belief, the health of the average country child is below that of the city child.

Mrs. MacLachlan outlined the method by which the child's help is being enlisted in the crusade for an improved health programme.

Dr. Bapty opened his address by saying that the country could never overcome what was lost during the war in healthy young adult lives, and pointed out the necessity of saving every life possible. The bulk of the people were demanding more and more assistance from the state. Free education was one of the early demands and now medical inspection of schools was an accomplished fact, and the public were amazed that they did not foresee the need sooner. In the past, medical inspection had been prefunctory. Dr. Bapty spoke of the curable defects that might be remedied and the diseases that might be checked in the early stages. The medical man could only go so far; the school nurse examined the child, reported to the doctor, interviewed the parents, saw the home surroundings, and in improved conditions and thus saved her salary many times over.

Praised V. O. N.

Dr. Bapty eulogized the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses and spoke of the nurse and home in charge of a health centre. There would be an office where children might have minor operations performed by visiting surgeons where special cases could be examined and from which, in cases of serious outbreaks, additional workers could be supplied.

State Health Insurance would be a great boon for the poorer people. The rich paid for their own medical attendance, the very poor received theirs free, but the great bulk found it a burden.

With the medical inspection of schools the girl and boy dullard who take up the large part of the teacher's time and keep the others back, would be put in special school for such cases. With the prevention or cure in its early stages of all possible disease, either of mind or body, an improved physical and mental standard would be set.

Preventive Work.

Miss Wilkinson, Matron of the Duncan Hospital and School Nurse, had prepared a most interesting paper on her work, which was read by Dr. Kerr. The object of her work, she said, was the prevention of physical, mental and moral deterioration. Defective teeth, tonsils, adenoids and eye strain were causes of lowered vitality, and consequent educational loss.

Dr. Young Speaks.

Dr. H. E. Young stated that in the Provincial campaign for public health he had not yet heard the case so well presented as it had been that night by Mrs. McLachlan, Dr. Bapty and Miss Wilkinson. As an instance of what proper observance of the laws of health and preventive measures could do, Dr. Young stated that in the South African war, in an open country and under ideal natural conditions, sixty-five per cent. of the deaths had been due to disease. In the recent war, under terrible conditions, the loss through disease had been only five per cent. This great reduction had been due to the work of the medical profession. It was vitally necessary that the number of years of a man's life in which he is able to produce something for the welfare of the nation should be increased from ten to fifteen years, and this could be done with proper regard to health laws. Had the children of this generation been attended to in youth we should have had a million more men in the field.

Dr. Young pointed out that the right of the community must supersede that of the individual. The individual must be convinced that he is an asset and must be protected in spite of himself.

Proposed University Course.

The establishment of a faculty of nursing at the British Columbia University was the first in Canada. The nurses would graduate as Bachelors of Nursing after a five-year course. For present needs the University would give a short course to graduate nurses to equip them for work in health centres. In addition to the academic course there will be the practical course with the Victorian Order. The centres in Vancouver and in Saanich will be utilized by the Victorian Order for this course; the anti-tuberculosis clinic in Vancouver and the schools will also be used.

All organizations were urgently asked to drop any differences and to co-operate in centralizing all their endeavours under the Provincial Board of Health. Various societies were asked to employ their energies in their own districts. "The Red Cross Society and other allied bodies of workers have during the war developed a higher standard of efficiency than they themselves are aware of, and all that splendid reservoir of energy co-operating and co-ordinated would be an invaluable asset in the bigger peace war against disease," continued Dr. Young.

Dr. Young advised the formation in Cowichan of a central committee to which would be sent representatives from all organizations and with contributions from organizations, and help from individuals the health centre should be an assured success. Dr. Young promised if this were done that he could say for the Red Cross Society that they would give a motor car for the use of the nurse.

Red Cross Aid.

Dr. Young explained that last year when the scheme was on paper he had asked the help of the Victorian Order, and they had offered to turn the services of their whole organization to the department of health. The Provincial Red Cross had promised the training and upkeep of ten nurses. The Red Cross and the V. O. N. had conferred, and an aggreement was reached whereby these nurses would be called Red Cross, and the Red Cross label would be on everything connected with the work.

These nurses will be paid $125 a month, $85 salary and $40 living allowance, and municipalities, school boards, women's organizations would all be asked to contribute and co-operate.

The meeting was in thorough accord with Dr. Young's plan. Already the Cowichan branch of the Red Cross had begun work along these lines as part of the Red Cross Society's peace activities, and the district nurse committee of Cowichan is working with them. The Women's Institute, the North Cowichan Red Cross and other organizations will be asked to join in, and a first class health centre will be established in Cowichan, carried through by the united effort urged on by the great need.

BURNABY MAN CAN EAT ANYTHING NOW

For Three Years Was Miserable From Indigestion; Is Grateful to Tanlac

"I am not only ten pounds heavier than I was when I started taking Tanlac, but am enjoying better health than I have in years," said W. B. Whipple, Seaton Street, Burnaby, B. C.

"Three years ago," continued Mr. Whipple, "I began to suffer from stomach trouble and indigestion. My appetite was so poor I never cared to eat and often even the smell or sight of food would nauseate me. Everything I ate disagreed with me, and I would bloat up with gas so badly after every meal I could hardly breathe, and at times would just have to fight to get my breath. This gas pressed against my heart until it would palpitate dreadfully, and I would have a terrible choking sensation. I was troubled with heartburn a great deal, and had severe pains around my heart, and some times got so weak and dizzy I could hardly stand on my feet. My back pained me all the time, and I was barely able to stoop over, and if I did it was all I could do to straighten up again. This pain was so bad at times I could hardly walk, and would have to just creep about. I also suffered with severe headaches, and was so nervous I could hardly get any sleep at all, and I always felt tired and worn-out in the mornings.

"Tanlac was spoken so highly of by so many people I knew I decided to try it myself, and now I am glad to join the many others who are praising it. I am on my fifth bottle now, and am feeling just as good as anybody would want to feel. I have such a splendid appetite I can hardly get enough to eat, and it makes no difference what I eat I never have a sign of indigestion. I am never bothered with gas or palpitation of the heart, the pains have gone out of my back, and all the other troubles I had before taking Tanlac are all gone. I think Tanlac is a grand medicine, and I am always going to say a good word for it."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas—Advt.

REPORT MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says we must keep feet dry; avoid exposure and eat less meat.

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

Preliminary construction of the hospital is under way on ground donated by Count von Bentinck. AN UNDESIRABLE VISITOR

The local health authorities announce the outbreak of a number of influenza cases in the city, and the public no doubt will duly note the fact and govern itself accordingly. This undesirable visitation presumably is a part of the development which has been reported from Chicago and other points in the middle western states. As to its character doctors differ—as they sometimes have been known to do. Some say it is lighter than last year, while others declare it is of the same serious nature. In the face of such a conflict among experts, the best course for the layman is to take no chances, to follow religiously that well-known motto "Safety First" and get to bed with the first manifestation of symptoms. The adoption of certain regulations since the first influenza epidemic gives the City Health authorities a better opportunity of controlling the situation if the present minor outbreak should threaten to develop into an epidemic. If the public will cooperate by observing carefully a few elementary precautions, with which they now must be fully conversant, there will be no occasion for apprehension.

A TIMELY PRONOUNCEMENT.

Premier Oliver's decision in connection with Provincial and Federal land development enterprises leaves no room for doubt in the future. He has informed the Vancouver Superintendent of the Dominion Soldier Settlement Board that the Province does not intend to embark upon any scheme of clearing and general preparatory work with its own money unless there is a definite understanding beforehand between the Federal and Provincial Boards as to the ultimate liability.

That is to say, the Province will be prepared to authorize its Board to co-operate with the Dominion body for the purpose of inspecting any tract of land upon which both agree as to its suitability for settlement; but the Province will use its money for improvement purposes only on the understanding that it be reimbursed in full at the stage when the settler or settlers involved may qualify for the Federal loan and the transference of the land from the Province to the Dominion takes place.

In the case of the Merville community plan the Provincial Land Settlement Board has financed the project to date under the provisions of its own Act and when some ten farms had reached a stage at which they could be transferred to the Federal board the latter's appraisers did not show, nor have they yet shown, any desire to perform their part of the tentative understanding reached some time ago. The argument has been advanced that the cost had been altogether too high; but it must be remembered that the Merville scheme is an experiment and if costly it should at least yield very considerable benefit. In the meantime the Federal officers have not appraised the improvements.

On that account, and because of the necessity having arisen for this Province to take the initiative along community settlement lines, British Columbia certainly should not be penalized for its enterprise. It is therefore timely—although the need of it never should have arisen—that all possibility of further misunderstanding and delay should be eliminated by a plain decision such as that indicated in the Premier's announcement.

JOHN BULL AND UNCLE SAM.

Horatio Bottomley, editor of John Bull, no doubt appropriates unto himself the title of the most candid publicist in Great Britain, and not without some justification. His editorial policy is very cocksure, but it is so outspoken that his mistakes are forgiven by that less stolid section of the reading public which favors action of any kind rather than the lassitude which is charged against the Government.

Mr. Bottomley's latest sensation, says a London dispatch, is an article which takes its text from the Sims-Daniels controversy, and the writer asks the plain but startling question "is America our friend?" If she is not, he says, "make plans accordingly." He refuses to believe that Sims "is the biggest liar since Ananias" and vows he will not "flatter the vanity of this hustling race nor laud to the skies their part in the war and pretend to discover in Washington virtues which are absent from every European capital."

Mr. Bottomley, however, speaks approvingly of the "decent American" and his fair-minded view of the country's attitude to the war. Here is the crux of the whole thing. Eventually it will be the predominating "decent" element, both in Great Britain and in the United States that will prevent fly-by-night politicians from pursuing a policy that would be likely to set both countries at one another's throats. And the sooner Mr. Bottomley and other publicists direct their attention to the many points of agreement between the two great English-speaking nations, instead of the differences, and the importance to both of harmony and concord between them, the better it will be for the world in general.

THE RULE OF THE ROAD.

If a vote could be taken in this Province on the question of changing the rule of the road we would hazard a guess that a large majority would endorse the plan for British Columbia to get into line with the rest of the continent. The question of whether compensation should be paid to those firms and corporations who might be affected financially by the change is another matter, and a very convincing case undoubtedly would have to be made out before the Legislature would feel disposed to commit itself to an obligation of that kind. From the various expressions of opinion which marked the debate on the subject during the last Session it was merely a very proper concern for those who would be more definitely interested in the change that postponed legislation to give effect to the unanimous wish of the Legislature at that time. One or two exponents on compensation, we recall, were not unduly encouraged by the majority.

VERY PRESSING, INDEED.

Replying to the morning paper's criticism of the policy of conscripting vacant lots, and its contention that the need of greater production upon which that policy was based is not so acute now, Alderman Todd declares that the need of a greater production of foodstuffs is more pressing now than it has been at any other time. Mr. Todd is quite correct in this assertion. During the war the Allied nations merely had to feed themselves. Now they have to feed not only themselves but their late adversaries, since it is generally realized that the absolute collapse of central Europe would mean disaster for the whole world. Indeed, the most pressing need of the world to-day is more production, first of foodstuffs, and then of other commodities in the order of their importance to the average individual.

It should not be forgotten that while Canadian money is subjected to an exchange disability of more than 12 per cent. in the United States, the pound is not worth more than $4 in Canada. Thus, while Canada loses on her exchange with the United States, she gains heavily on her exchange with Great Britain. The Old Country loses on both counts.

Some humorist suggests that a constable with a club in hand be stationed in the City Council Chamber on meeting nights. The humor is likely to be lost upon some of the members of the Council. May we point out that the storms which develop at these meetings from time to time are not without their advantages. They create a feeling of rivalry and competition, which in turn breeds initiative and energy, from which the city must be the gainer. We prefer a Council in which tempests develop from time to time to one whose proceedings are marked by continuous dull, drab and deadly calm from which ideas never spring and which ultimately stagnates the promising aldermanic mind. Nothing but miasma lurks in a sluggish stream.

A few more raids on Sinn Fein camps in Ireland such as that carried on over the week-end should result in a very considerable diminution of the forces which are keeping Ireland in a state of tribulation and the British politician on tenterhooks.

The rumor that the Leader of the Opposition in the local Legislature had intended to place a resolution on the order paper designed to limit all speeches to fifteen minutes has been dispelled.

Before the University of B. C., was established we had a two-year course in Arts in Victoria in affiliation with McGill University at so moderate a cost that it attracted no attention from even our old friends "Constant Reader," "Taxpayer" and "Pro Bono Publico." Yet, President Klinck tells us it would cost $94,000 to establish a similar course here in affiliation with the University of British Columbia, in the place of the one with McGill we had to give up when the Provincial institution began its work. May we inquire if the main University budget was drawn up with the sense of proportion?

Carter Glass, the retiring secretary of the United States Treasury, has declared in effect that his country cannot undertake to finance the requirements of Europe. Very probably it would not be good for Europe were Uncle Sam to place his national till unreservedly at the disposal of the Old World. We cannot believe, however, that our neighbor will shut his eyes to a very proper middle course.

HIS VINDICATION.

(Halifax Chronicle.)

Lord Haldane was made the victim of a bitter political vendetta during the early years of the war. His book now issued in London, which is largely a collection of his articles in The Westminster Gazette, not only vindicates him personally; it is a complete vindication of Britain's pre-war policy. Britain was ready, thanks to the work of Lord Haldane as Secretary of War, to put her Expeditionary Force in the field according to contract, and that "Contemptible Little Army," reinforced as it later was by the Territorial Force organized by Haldane, saved the day for civilization against the first onrush of the enemy.

HECKLING AND HECKLING.

(From The London Chronicle.)

The application of the word "heckling" to the disorderly and unintelligent interruption of the week-end speech of the Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Food is no doubt strictly correct, for the word is adapted from the name of a "teasing" machine used in the textile trade, but anything more unlike the heckling at an election meeting in Scotland could not be imagined.

The Scotch heckler is the model of propriety. He hears the candidate's apologia to the end without an interruption, and when his turn comes—for it is as constitutional a part of the proceedings as the speech itself—he introduces himself in this wise:—"Murdoch Macpherson; 780, Sauchiehall Street; number on the burgess roll 1,208." The party agent on the platform swiftly refers to the burgess roll, and if he is able to announce (as sometimes happens) "He is not a voter," there is a summary end of the heckler. But as a rule the introduction is verified, and the questions proceed—frequently a capital example in the art of cross-examination, and hardly ever attended by stupid disorder. The heckler in Scotland would be very much surprised to be spoken of as a mere rowdy.

INDUSTRIES BRANCH SUBJECT OF REPORT

Premier Oliver Tables First Return of New Provincial Department

Legislative Press Gallery, February 2.

Created less than six months ago, the British Columbia department of industries has amply demonstrated its right to exist. To the end of 1919 a total of 225 applications had been received for assistance in establishing and extending industrial concerns of great variety in the Province.

There are two conclusions to be reached without much difficulty from the first annual report of the Department tabled in the Legislature this afternoon by Premier Oliver as Minister of Industries.

Primarily, the department is intended to foster industries which will mean the utilization of the undeveloped natural resources of the province, but other concerns, the incidence of which would be beneficial by way of providing employment or increasing the commerce of the province, are taken into consideration and receive assistance.

Half Million in Loans.

Assisted by an advisory council of seven members composed of business men of wide experience in many lines of commerce, Industrial Commissioner Major D. B. Martyn, D. S. O., M. C., has recommended nineteen loans to be made by the Government. The aggregate sum thus expended amounts to $500,000 and the inauguration or extension of these industries has meant the expenditure of $1,000,000 on industrial works giving permanent employment to about 500 men, most of whom are veterans of the recent war.

The amount of a single loan has varied from $500 to $200,000, the latter sum being loaned to the Canadian Western Cordage Company, a Vancouver concern promoted and managed entirely by returned soldiers. Other infant industries which have been assisted may be instanced, including a toy factory, two furniture factories and a returned soldiers' canning company, while applications are now under consideration which, if approved, will call for additional loans to the extent of $500,000.

The department is continually in receipt of inquiries from abroad, principally from the British Isles, pertaining to the industrial requirements and openings in British Columbia.

Success of the Plan.

The inauguration of such a department of the Government constitutes an entirely new departure, the success of which has been established in the first few months of its existence. While every precaution is taken to assure, to the taxpayers of the province, ample security for the investment of their money, wide powers of discretion have been allowed the commissioner, and the department thus has become a very potent influence in the industrial development of the country.

To veterans desiring to enter into business enterprises on their own account or wishing to establish productive industries, the department has been found of great service. The professional and business men's section of the local department of S. C. R. receives many inquiries as to openings and in a large number of cases is able to assist applicants by putting their suggestions into concrete form for reference to the department.

Summary.

The following is a summary of applications received by the department:

Total number of applications to end of December, 1919, 225.

Total amount applied for, $2,767,404.41.

Total amount of loans approved, $422,200.

Total amount of loans under advisement, $61,000.

Total number of applicaions refused, 155.

Total number of applications granted, 19.

Total number of applications under advisement, 6.

Total number of applications under investigation, 45.

CHARTER OBLIGATION SUBJECT OF MEASURE

Newcastle Member Would Cancel Them on Transferred Jurisdiction

Legislative Press Gallery, February 2.

If there are any public corporations intent upon slipping from under provincial jurisdiction on the strength of recent experience in connection with at least two concerns operating under charters from the Government of this Procince, the procedure is about to be challenged by James H. Hawthornthwaite, member for Newcastle.

The Socialist member intends to introduce a measure during the present session of the Legislature designed to vest power in the Province to cancel any charter of its own issuance once the holder thereof takes any steps to remove his operations from the control of the Province to that of the Dominion.

Mr. Hawthornthwaite takes the view that the recent action on the part of two concerns is a violation of a contractual obligation entered into between themselves and the Province and that the penalty for such an act should be the cancellation of the Provincial charter. The bill also will provide that subsequent charters shall be issued on this understanding.

greatest mistake to refuse that co-operation because conditions are attached to it, and when that co-operation is accepted, let it not be accepted in a spirit of pessimism."

This statement is expected to have considerable effect in the treaty fight.

On Own Terms.

Republican Senators declared this morning that the Grey letter merely confirms them in what they had thought for some time, namely, that Great Britain and France would be willing to have the United States enter the League of Nations on its own terms. Democrats generally were reticent, but were inclined to regard the letter as likely to become an important factor in the present effort to break the deadlock in the Senate.

It is asserted by reservationists that the letter opens a way for President Wilson to reach a compromise with the Republicans of the Senate over the League project.

Reservations.

A striking development this morning was that during informal talks with many Senators, in order to secure the various shades of sentiment existing in Washington in regard to the treaty, Viscount Grey made it plain to different Senators that the British Government was willing to accept reservations, and even the Lodge reservations, which have served as the basis for the treaty fight in the Senate, would be acceptable to the British Government. Lord Grey is said to have exhibited at least one telegram from Premier Lloyd George, in which the latter indicated that the Lodge reservations as voted on in the Senate on the closing day of the special session would be accepted by the British Government.

A portion of the letter which is of particular interest to Canadians is that which deals with the American objection to the basis of voting in the League Assembly, which provides votes for the British Overseas Dominions. Lord Grey states definitely that "Great Britain can admit no qualification of that right."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, February 2, 1895.

The City Council is considering the erection of a new fire hall with a view to enlarging the protection afforded by the Fire Department.

A special committee of aldermen who, with Engineer Wilmot, have visited Elk and Beaver Lakes to investigate the matter, will advise the City Council to erect a wooden flume from Elk and Beaver Lakes to the dam at a cost of some $5,000. It is feared that the Summer may be over before filter beds can be established.

Bishop Perrin is daily growing stronger. His attendance at church on Sunday was a source of pleasure to a large congregation.

LIVESTOCK QUALITY BEING IMPROVED

Ottawa, Feb. 2.—(Canadian Press)—It is estimated that the total direct benefit in the increased value of the cattle in Canada from the livestock distribution policy of the Department of Agriculture, since its inception, will reach some $6,000,000. The Department calls attention to the fact that the value of the livestock industry is being materially increased by the improvement of the quality of stock. A two-year-old calf, sired by a purebred bull, is worth at least $20 more than one of the same age from a scrub bull. Under the livestock distribution scheme, the Department has loaned 2,500 purebred bulls to farmers' organizations in various parts of the country and the total of $6,000,000 is based on the estimate that during his term of usefulness each bull sires 120 calves.

RULE OF THE ROAD.

To the Editor.—In my humble opinion it will be a happy day for Victoria when people cease talking about changing the rule of the road. What benefit would it be to Victoria? With all due respect to Mr. G. I. Warren, who says tourists are worried, think for one moment how we would be worried, the great length of time it would take the Electric Company to change their rails and the annoyance of not being able to take a street car for all that time. What's more, who would bear the vast expense? Taxpayers cannot stand any addition to their already heavy burdens. Mr. Goward wished to emphasize the difficulty and dangerous task of carrying it out, and that it really would be. Mr. F. W. Jones thought that more consideration was being given to the people who were coming here than to the 25,000 motorists in the Province. I quite agree with him. Mr. N. A. Yarrow wanted to know what benefits would be derived from the change. He is right. The tourists will come to this lovely place regardless of the side of the road they drive on.

RE JITNEYS.

To the Editor.—With reference to the Private Bill in which the City of Victoria is endeavoring to secure powers to regulate or, in other words, eliminate jitneys in favor of a large corporation, I am very pleased indeed to see some of the aldermen represent public opinion in this matter and object to the elimination of jitneys, their view being that jitneys should have every right to compete and supply a public demand, especially when every thinking person will admit that motor transportation will be the transportation of the future.

I would direct attention to the fact that I am not a jitney driver, but am a returned soldier and realize that a considerable number of returned soldiers, who have on medical advice adopted an outdoor occupation, have gone into the jitney business, and I object most strongly to these men being driven out of employment owing to the desire of a corporation to eliminate competition.

I sincerely hope that the Provincial Legislature will give every facility to the public to express their opinion on this portion of the Private Bill relating to jitneys before taking any action, and I am sure if they do this the clauses relating to jitneys in the above-mentioned bill will be thrown out.

The action of the City Council in endeavoring to eliminate jitneys is not to be complimented, and I am certain that the public as a whole will back up those right thinking aldermen who will not stand for any control of public affairs by a private corporation.

RETURNED SOLDIER.

MR. PEIRCE WANTS ANOTHER.

To the Editor.—Owing to the fact that the Crystal Theatre only has seating accommodation for five hundred, several hundred people were unable to hear the debate on "Bolshevism" on Saturday last. I understand that many of them were very much disappointed, and to give them an opportunity of hearing both sides of this much-discussed question, I throw open the challenge to any opponent of "Bolshevism" to meet me in debate next Saturday at the same place. If preferred, my opponent may choose others to speak with him, and I will choose a corresponding number to support me.

This challenge must be accepted through the press.

CORRECTS ALD. ANDROS.

To the Editor:—In reference to the recent bond transaction with the City of Victoria certain statements have been made in the press that we feel it our duty to correct:

1. The deal was for two bonds of $50,000 each, one of which was sold and the other bought; not $30,000 purchased as stated by Mr. Andros.
2. The price for both transactions was that fixed by the Special Market Committee organized under instructions from the Minister of Finance to stabilize Victory Loan prices and any profit made on the transactions by this firm was not charged in any way whatever against the City. If Mr. Andros was told otherwise he was misinformed.
3. The Dominion Securities Corporation had nothing whatever to do with this deal and had no knowledge of it.

FIVE THOUSAND CHILDREN NOT ATTENDING SUNDAY SCHOOL

A complete census of Victoria taken just previous to the war showed that out of some 7,000 children residing in the City, 5,000 attended no Sunday School. Of these a considerable number received religious education and training in the home, but by far the largest proportion were growing up without coming under the influence of the church. To-day the situation is very much the same. Recently two Victoria boys were asked on different occasions about the Bible, of these one had never even heard of the Bible while the other had no knowledge whatever of Jesus Christ. And this in a Christian city with over thirty churches!

In an endeavour to reach a number of these the First Presbyterian Church Young People's Department has organized a great campaign which commenced yesterday. The members of all departments of the Sunday School, from Kindergarten and Beginners to Senior and Adult Bible Classes will be the recruiting sergeants and it confidently expected that as many children will be reached as the Sunday School Building with its twenty-three classrooms can conveniently accommodate.

Every facility is available for thorough instruction in religious education and for development along physical and social lines. The splendid gymnasium and basketball ground is available all day and every day and the fact that the First Church has eight basketball teams playing in the City Sunday School League is evidence that full advantage is being taken of this modern equipment. Everyone is welcome, because there are classes for everyone.

In honor of the eighteenth birthday and formal coming-out of their daughter, Miss Aldersey Hallam, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hallam entertained a party of about fifty guests at their residence at Newport Avenue on Saturday evening. The reception rooms were charmingly decorated with white chrysanthemums and ivy, a similar scheme being carried out in the billiard room, where dancing took place. Mrs. Hallam received her guests in a handsome gown of black charmeuse and tulle, while her debutante daughter looked charmingly girlish in a dainty frock of powder-blue taffeta, with bodice of silver net trimmed with silver tissue. During the evening a delicious and elaborate supper was served in the dining room. The table was adorned with a charming and appropriate decorative scheme, the artistic handiwork of Mrs. Chas. E. Wilson. Seventeen baby kewpies, representing the seventeen youthful years of the debutante's life, and attired in white tulle and silver, each held silver ribbons which led to a large central kewpie clad in white and silver and symbolic of the young hostess' eighteenth birthday. The kewpies were posed upon a background of silver cloth veiled in white, the whole presenting a charming effect. Masses of dainty stevia imparted the necessary floral touch to the table decoration. Miss Hallam was the recipient of warm congratulations and good wishes from the assembled guests upon the attainment of her eighteenth birthday.

SIR CLIVE PHILLIPS-WOLLEY CHAPTER

Formed at Cowichan Station; Regent Is Daughter of Late Imperialist

To perpetuate the memory of Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley, the famous Imperialist and poet, who died at Cowichan some time ago, a chapter of the I. O. D. E. bearing his name has been formed in Cowichan. The Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley Chapter was organized at Cowichan Station on Tuesday last, Mrs. Boynton, Provincial organizing secretary of Vancouver, performing the inaugural ceremony.

Sir Clive's Daughter Regent.

It is of particular interest, and a peculiarly fitting coincidence, that the regent, Mrs. Joseph Reade, is the daughter of the late Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley. The other officers are as follows: First vice-regent, Mrs. Corsield; second vice-regent, Mrs. Stewart Macleod; secretary, Mrs. M. Rejd; Echoes secretary, Mrs. Walcot; educational secretary, Mrs. Checke; treasurer, Mrs. Claude Moss, O.B.E.; standard bearer, Miss Maitland McDougall. There are two charter members, Mrs. Averill and Mrs. E. D. Read.

Because of Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley's interest in the Navy, the efforts of this Chapter will be devoted specially to Navy League work. Their motto is, "Labor, Our Daily Law."

Mrs. Moss, O.D.E., Treasurer.

The members of the Sir Clive Phillipps-Wolley Chapter have the rare fortune to have in their treasurer Mrs. Claude Moss, O.B.E., a woman who has achieved wonderful distinction in the course of an active career and whose magnificent executive ability has long received unusual recognition in higher military circles. She was in South Africa at the time of the war there, and assisted Lord Milner in the carrying out of his scheme for a Concentration Camp for war refugee women. During the recent European war she spent five years overseas, going over with the Wrens. She was later transferred to the Air Force service, where she was gazetted as Assistant Commandant to the Major-General, acting for him in the Department embracing London and the Home Counties.

MOTHERCRAFT FOR UNMARRIED MOTHERS

Hostels for Illegitimate Babies and Mothers Established in England

Mothercraft hostels for the purpose of teaching the unmarried mother the proper care of her infant, are being established in some of the big industrial centres of England. The nation has been awakened to the need for the conservation of its infant life by the appalling death-rate among illegitimate children, which has led social service workers to work for the establishment of hostels. In view of the prominence given to the case of the unmarried mother during the recent sittings of the Provincial Commission on Mother's Pensions, Health Insurance and Maternity Benefits, the following article from a London paper should prove timely reading.

No Separation.

A scheme to help the unmarried mother was described yesterday to a press representative by a trained nurse who is shortly to open a hostel in Liverpool.

"The bad point in almost all 'rescue' work in the past," she said, "was the separation of the child from the mother. I think that to-day most social workers are coming to believe that it is best for the child and the mother to be together.

"The object of the Liverpool scheme, which will be run under a committee of interested people, is to provide a hostel for unmarried expectant mothers where their babies can be born. It is tremendously important that unmarried mothers should be taught how to care for their babies, because the death rate among illegitimate children is high. As far as I know few hostels where these babies are received give the mothers a really adequate training in mothercraft.

Feeding of the Child.

"We shall insist that, whenever possible, the mother shall feed her child, and she will not be expected to go out to work until the baby is at least six months old.

"During this time, if she has not already a trade or profession, she will be taught how to earn her own living, and, when able to leave her baby, she will go out to daily work, and come back to the hostel at night."

This hostel will be the first of the kind to be opened in Liverpool, but there is already in London a home for unmarried mothers run on similar lines.

This is the Day Servants' Hostel in Danvers Street, Chelsea, where there are now about sixteen unmarried mothers, who go out to work every day and return to their babies when work is done.

Most of the mothers come back to the hostel early in the afternoon, to take their babies out.

"The life of these young girls is not easy," the superintendent of the hostel said to a Daily Chronicle representative yesterday, "but they are happy because they have their babies with them. They work hard at their jobs, and then come back and give their children a mother's care.

"They cannot go out and amuse themselves quite like other girls, but some of the mothers we have had here have made very happy marriages, and have, at the husband's wish, taken the baby with them. The aim at the Danvers Street hostel is to create a home atmosphere, where mothers and babies can live happily and normally.

"I do not quite know what the Ministry of Health proposes to do in making provision for illegitimate babies," the superintendent added, "but I hope that we have seen the last of the big institutions."

Bad as this world is it seems to us that the fellow who wants to behave himself and work can get along fairly well in it and get a lot of fun out of it.

THE DREAD PYORRHEA BEGINS WITH BLEEDING GUMS

Pyorrhea's infecting germs cause many ills. Medical science has proven this.

Diseased conditions, which not long ago doctors were unable to trace to a cause, are now known often to be the result of Pyorrhea germs that breed in pockets about the teeth. Rheumatism, anaemia, nervous disorders and other diseases have been traced in many cases to this Pyorrhea infection.

Don't let Pyorrhea work its wicked will on your body. Visit your dentist frequently for tooth and gum inspection.

And watch your gums yourself. Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty, begins with tender and bleeding gums; then the gums recede, the teeth decay, loosen and fall out, or must be extracted to rid the system of poisons generated at their base.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's keeps the gums hard and healthy—the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

CARTRIDGE CLOTH AS FASHIONABLE WEAR

Washington, Jan. 31.—Cartridge cloth, a new material created by the war, is being transformed by war department experts into goods for women's wear. Samples of the material made up into women's blouses of fetching design are being offered for sale in New York stores to see how milady takes to it. If it proves popular other creations will be put on sale.

The cloth is a rough all-silk product somewhat resembling burlap and was used in the manufacture of small bags for holding heavy artillery explosive charges. When the war ended large quantities of the material were on hand. To make the goods saleable the army experts devised a means of boiling out the gummy substances which gave it the coarse appearance. It was then dyed or printed until the finished product presented a material which the experts believe the women will like.

NO STUFFING.

Mrs. Newbride—John, dear, I think that horrid butcher cheated me.

Husband—Why, my love?

Mrs. Newbride—Because he sold me a turkey that didn't have a blessed bit of stuffing in it.—Judge.

Each Blouse an Exquisite Creation

Extreme daintiness of design is a noticeable feature of the blouses assembled at this store. Moreover, qualities of materials are always reliable and therefore at such moderate prices afford values of a pleasing nature.

SCOTTISH SEEDLINGS FOR POTATO PLANTING

Thirty Tons of New Immune Variety to Fight Off Disease

To guard against an absolute potato famine here next year, the Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture and Federal Member for Victoria, to-day completed arrangements and secured permission from Washington, D.C., for the importation from Scotland of thirty tons of immune seed tubers. Other shipments will likely follow this.

This is the first shipment of the immune variety. These potatoes are proof against diseases which have been affecting the Vancouver Island and the whole Coast potato crop during the last season and which have brought about the serious shortage now. These potatoes can be planted and grown in infected soil without suffering themselves.

Potato growers here say that the introduction of the immune seedlings is the only hope for restoring potato production in certain districts which have become disease-infected.

The United States and Canada some time ago entered into a compact to refuse admission to all foreign potatoes. Because of the seriousness of the potato situation on this Coast at present, Washington has agreed to relax the agreement to admit this special shipment from Scotland.

Wholesale dealers to-day say that the only potatoes to be obtained are in Victoria. Other parts of the Province are appealing to local wholesalers for supplies. To meet this demand one or two carloads were shipped out of Victoria to-day.

CHINESE BREAK B. C. JAP ORANGE MARKET

Retaliate by Boycott For Nippon's Activities in Far East

Retaliating for the way in which Japanese imperialists have been carrying on a Pan-Japanese policy in Asia, British Columbia Chinese organized a boycott against Japanese oranges this season. They have been so successful that they broke the Japanese orange market, left large quantities of the oranges on the hands of the wholesalers to rot and caused a tremendous loss to the Japanese firm in Vancouver which imported the oranges.

These facts have come out now that the Japanese orange season is at an end.

Japanese oranges were put on the market around $1 a box, which was considered a profitable price. But despite all efforts to get them distributed, wholesalers could not get them out. The result was that "Japs" piled up in the warehouses and began to rot. The price began to drop, but that did not increase the sales. In a last effort to get rid of as many as possible of the remaining boxes, Japs are being quoted at 68 cents a box retail to-day.

This price is below what the "Japs" cost. Besides being a net loss on the price, there has been a very heavy loss through "shrinkage," that is, fruit going bad during the time the oranges have been held.

Boycott Ironclad.

The reason for the failure of the "Japs" to sell this year is that the Chinese made their boycott ironclad. The greater part of the fruit distribution in this Province is in the hands of the Chinese. Their power is so great that if they refuse to handle any product they can almost force it off the market.

Price-cutting and other inducements failed to persuade Chinese to take Japanese oranges this season. There is only one case in the Province where a Chinese is known to have handled a "Jap." That was in Vancouver a couple of weeks ago, when he was tempted by an alluring offer from a wholesale house.

He had no sooner displayed the Japanese oranges in his shop than he was visited by a delegation of fifteen leading Chinese of the community. He himself carried the "Japs" back to the wholesaler faster than they had been delivered to him.

TO PAY CITY FOR SERVICE RENDERED

Library Commission Signs Agreements With Neighboring Municipalities

Adjoining municipalities will pay for their use of the Victoria Public Library this year according to the service rendered to them.

Already Saanich has signed an agreement with the city on this basis; Esquimalt is about to sign such a contract, and, it is expected, Oak Bay will take similar action in the near future. Residents of Saanich may secure library cards direct from the Municipal Clerk at Royal Oak on payment of twenty-five cents, or they may fill in applications at the Library. These applications will be sent to the clerk, who will issue cards by mail. Esquimalt residents may secure cards at the library as soon as the agreement between the municipality and the city is concluded.

The amount which each municipality must pay will be computed from library records showing the number of books borrowed by residents of the districts. Part payment will be rendered in the middle of the year on a basis of service rendered up to that time. At the end of the year a detailed adjustment will be made. As the agreements will terminate on January 31, 1921, all library cards issued to residents of the municipalities will be cancelled at that time.

At the first meeting of the Library Commission on Saturday Alderman Sargent was re-elected chairman, and Commissioner W. Marchant secretary. Three committee were struck, including one on book selection, composed of Rev. Dr. Clay and Mrs. Graves; a building committee of Mr. Marchant and Arthur C. Pike, and a finance committee of Alderman Sargent and Mr. Pike.

SUFFERED WITH BOILS LAST FIVE YEARS

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood, and anyone who has suffered from them knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them.

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood, and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized, by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, your misery is at an end and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robt. Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I have suffered very much during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years and is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Toronto, Ont.

ISSUES APPEAL FOR NURSES TO CARE FOR INFLUENZA PATIENTS

But Health Officer Says Public Can Check Spread of Disease

NO GENERAL OUTBREAK IF PRECAUTIONS TAKEN

While declaring that the public, by taking proper precautions and obeying certain simple instructions, can prevent the spread of the disease, Dr. Price, City Medical Health Officer, to-day issued an appeal for at least one hundred volunteer nurses to care for patients suffering from influenza. Trained nurses are asked to register with Miss O'Brien by telephoning 275, while untrained volunteers will communicate with the Victorian Order of Nurses, at telephone 4944. The nurses whose services are thus secured will be detailed to homes in which there are influenza cases, and to the Isolation Hospital.

Little influenza had been reported in Victoria up to the week-end. The prevalence of the disease, however, became apparent on Saturday night. During Friday, Saturday, Sunday and to-day, twenty-five cases had been reported, and the first death, that of Mrs. Nellie Aylwin, occurred this morning.

Should Take Care:

"The disease is exactly the same as last year," Dr. Price stated to-day, "no lighter and no heavier. I have no intention of putting a ban on assemblies as was done last year, for I believe that the public is now educated to see the importance of obeying the instructions promulgated. If the public will simply take the precautions which so often have been published in the press and which I am publishing again this year, there will not be an epidemic like last year. Everything, in fact, depends upon the public itself. If people will not go to dances, will keep away from crowds either in theatres or elsewhere when suffering from colds—when they are more susceptible to the malady—the spread of the disease will be checked. There is no harm in going to theatres if one is not suffering from a cold, but if one goes with a cold the person may easily contract the disease, or, having previously contracted influenza, unknowingly may spread the germs about.

Nurses Necessary.

"The nurses for whom I am appealing are absolutely necessary and I hope that the fine spirit of service manifested by the women last year will be apparent again. Influenza is a disease which requires care and thus nurses are essential in fighting it. If people will only take proper care of themselves and obey the simple instructions I am asking the papers to publish, the disease can be checked. I am hopeful that the public will do this, for it now realizes the necessity of such precautions. I cannot emphasize too much the urgent demand for nurses immediately."

The Instructions.

Dr. Price's instructions regarding the care to be taken of influenza cases are as follows:

Reporting Cases.

All cases of influenza must be immediately reported to the Medical Health Officer by the householder in whose house the case occurs or by the doctor attending the case.

Placarding Quarters.

A card shall be visibly placed at the entrance of every private house in which there is a case of influenza, stating that there is influenza in the house, and when a case occurs in a hotel such card shall be placed on the door of the apartment which the patient occupies. Such card shall not be removed without permission from the Medical Health Officer.

Quarantining of Patients.

A patient suffering from influenza shall not leave his or her quarters or residence until permission has been obtained from the Medical Health Officer.

Warning to Attendants.

Attendants and nurses should realize that they may take influenza from their patients, or may carry infection to others unless they take precautions.

Precautions to Be Taken in Infected Houses.

All in the house where there is a case of influenza should, at least twice every day, draw up into their nostrils a warm solution of common salt and water (strength one teaspoonful of salt in one pint of water) and should gargle and cleanse the mouth with same, and should wash their hands with soap and water before eating and before leaving the house.

A nurse, when in the act of attendance on a patient, should cover her mouth and nostrils with a piece of gauze or a handkerchief to safeguard her against highly infective expectoration which may be ejected by the patient in the act of coughing.

No feeding utensils or linen used by the patient should be used by others until they have been boiled.

All rooms, including the patient's, in an infected house should be kept airy and no closeness permitted.

Neglect of Precautions.

If precautions are neglected, the infected house will be quarantined.

General Instructions—Preventive.

Keep away from all assemblies and hot, airless rooms, where germs are thick and active.

Draw up into the nostrils a warm solution of common salt and water (strength one teaspoonful of salt in one pint of water) and gargle and cleanse the mouth with same at least twice daily; wash hands before eating.

Keep in as good health as possible by keeping regular hours and taking sufficient good food, fresh air, exercise and rest; by avoiding chills, by keeping feet dry and wearing sufficient clothing.

Restaurant keepers should have all feeding utensils sterilized before use.

If You Have Influenza.

At the first signs of illness GO TO BED and stay there until well.

Postponing going to bed has been the cause of most cases of pneumonia and death. It also may prove fatal to leave bed too soon.

Send for a doctor and have someone to nurse you.

MR. BARROW TALKS PLAINLY OF SUGAR

Government Will Seek to Protect Okanagan Fruit Growers This Year

Determined efforts on the part of the Government will be made during the next few months to prevent recurrence of losses in the fruit industry through sugar shortage. This statement was made to The Times representative this morning by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, in discussing the objects of the visit of the delegation from the British Columbia Fruit Growers' Association, which waited upon the Government on Saturday.

The co-operation of the Department has been promised by Mr. Barrow, who said there must be strict guarantees of prompt shipments of sugar at satisfactory prices and at the right time, else there would undoubtedly be serious losses suffered by the fruit growers again this season.

The direct result of the visit of the delegation, which consisted of Messrs. C. E. Barnes, president, of Wallachin, and L. E. Taylor, vice-president, will be their visit to Ottawa in the near future, accompanied by R. M. Palmer, of Cowichan, for the purpose of straightening out the sugar question insofar as the British Columbia fruit industry is concerned.

Little Worry Expected

To The Times Mr. Barnes stated there would be little to worry the growers this year if they were sure of an adequate sugar supply. President E. W. Beatty and Vice-President Coleman, of the C.P.R., had promised the shippers an adequate supply of cars and a greatly improved shipping service. Five hundred new cars at a cost of $8,000 each will be placed in commission in British Columbia.

The delegation also asked the Government for an increased staff of assistants in the fruit branch of the Department of Agriculture; pointing out that the staff had been sadly cut down as a result of the war. The increased capacity of the fruit business alone demanded greater assistance, and particularly if British Columbia's splendid reputation was to be maintained in the regulation of fruit pests.

Mr. Barnes referred to the fact that this province heads the list on the entire continent, and British Columbia methods are considered the standard even in the United States. However, any lessening of preventive methods, even for one year, would be disastrous. Further assistance in this regard has been promised by the department.

The delegation to Ottawa will be joined by President Mutrie, of the Okanagan United Growers, and the compulsory grading of vegetables and fruits will be strongly pressed for.

DELEGATIONS COMING

Provincial Cabinet Is Kept Busy During Intervals Between Sittings of the House.

Delegations are beginning the annual drive on the Government. At eleven o'clock to-morrow morning a City Council deputation from Kamloops will discuss with the Cabinet a proposal in connection with its hydro-electric plant and the possibilities of its partial utilization for irrigation purposes.

On Wednesday morning at eleven a delegation from the Civil Service Association will again place its case before the Cabinet. At twelve o'clock representatives of Labor and returned soldiers will place a request before the Executive.

DEPARTMENT IS NOT ALARMED OF "FLUE"

Reports Reaching Parliament Buildings Are Normal For This Time of Year

Reports reaching the offices of the Provincial Board of Health at the Parliament Buildings do not indicate any official apprehension of a recurrence of the Spanish influenza epidemic. Dr. Young, Secretary of the Provincial Board of Health, stated this morning that he had received a notification from Clayburn a few days ago that several of the men employed at the brickworks there had been stricken; but prompt isolation of the works limited the outbreak and conditions were rapidly assuming normal again.

Dr. Underhill, medical health officer for Vancouver, has written to the Department reporting some half a dozen cases in the Terminal City. These, however, are of an extremely mild form, resembling more the grippe style of cold than the true type of influenza, and certainly not approaching the nature of those which marked the epidemic last winter. Dr. Young hears that Seattle has a number of mild cases, and he proposes to watch events there on account of a possible spread northwards.

As far as Victoria is concerned Dr. Price has reported twenty-six cases to the Department and one death from pneumonia. Viewed from a purely departmental standpoint, the reports now being sent in from the few places—where severe colds appear to be prevalent—typify the average condition of the public health at this time of the year, and were it not for the apprehension caused by last year's "flue" visitation there would be nothing to single them out for special mention.

The smallpox cases at Kamloops are improving, and a number have been recommended for discharge after a period of isolation. An outbreak is reported from Kuper Island Indian School and the Indian authorities have taken the necessary precautions in addition to the adoption of prompt vaccination.

FORMOSANS LACK NATIONAL LIFE

Kenneth W. Dowie, Visiting Here, Has Been Engaged in Missionary Work

"Formosa will never take the same national stand toward independence which has occurred in Korea, owing to a lack of tradition and recognition of racial union." This remark was made by Kenneth W. Dowie in speaking of the great opportunity which is afforded in Formosa for Christian work. Mr. Dowie is visiting his father at Richmond Avenue, and expects shortly to leave for the East.

He is a McGill graduate who joined the service of the Church through the Presbyterian Missionary Board six years ago. He has divided his time since he went to the Orient between Japan and its second largest colony, Formosa. Of the island, which is populated with about 3,500,000 persons, the northern section is assigned to the Canadian Presbyterian Church. The population of the north is about 1,372,000, composed of 912,000 Fukienese, 350,000 Cantonese, 17,500 savages, 76,000 Japanese, and 16,500 foreigners, chiefly Chinese who have not become naturalized.

The area in which Mr. Dowie is operating, with headquarters at Taihoku, is about 4,700 square miles, and is well served by a railway. He says: "Whatever may be the experience in other parts of the Japanese Empire we have had every assistance from the Japanese administration in northern Formosa."

The mission has 15 missionaries operating, nine native pastors, 44 native preachers, and about 3,200 Christian converts, of whom about 2,000 are adults. He points out that owing to the difficulty of learning two distinct languages, Fukienese and Japanese, it takes a long time before practical Christian work can be done. It is hoped to start work among the Cantonese at an early date.

Mr. Dowie spoke at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday morning.

Wealth and happiness are not always on the best of terms.

SLOCAN DISTRICT IS RICH IN PROMISE

Part of Policy Now.

One of the primary advantages of the route proposed, continued Mr. Nelson, was the fact that much of this road already had been built and of the remaining fifty miles to be constructed, the major portion of it, in any case, would have to be undertaken at an early date.

"Furthermore," the Member for Slocan proceeded, "the entire route goes through country that is at present developed, or is capable of development, if this outlet is provided. This development would include mining, lumbering, and agriculture, all of which are co-related industries."

Mr. Nelson then went on to emphasize the scenic beauties of the route proposed by him, contending that there existed no grander or more beautiful scenery in British Columbia than along the Slocan and Arrow Lakes. Then again, he went on, the proposed route would embrace not only those but the Kootenay and Okanagan Lakes as well, while as a lake and valley system it would constitute the greatest tourist asset in Southern British Columbia.

Concerning Mr. Bowser.

Craving the indulgence of Mr. Speaker while he devoted a little attention to the Leader of the Opposition, the Member for Slocan made it clear to the House that he had not been alarmed by any of the speeches with which Mr. Bowser had regaled many audiences during his various tours of the Province since the Legislature last met. If the Leader of the Opposition had failed to interest his audiences in many cases, observed Mr. Nelson, he presumed he had been able to entertain himself.

"To the casual listener," tritely suggested the speaker, "who may not have been in possession of a true knowledge of the facts, this Government must seem a pretty bad lot. Of course Mr. Bowser's lament was a virtual repetition of what already had been heard on more than one occasion on the floor of the House. Even his old statements," Mr. Nelson rubbed in, "were trotted out absolutely regardless of corrections which had been made."

The Old Yarns.

The speaker then went on to deal with a number of Mr. Bowser's public utterances, deploring the fact that the leader of a great party should still find it entertaining to exhume the old stories of furniture and carpets in the offices of cabinet ministers, the purchase of automobiles, and various items from an apparently limitless catalogue of the alleged sins of omission and commission which the Opposition Leader sought to plant on the doorstep of the present Government.

More Interesting Topic.

Scenting the question of prohibition as a topic which he felt sure would be one of absorbing interest during the present session, Mr. Nelson vaulted from the "wings" on to a limitless controversial stage. He traversed his views of dry or semi-dry conditions back to the advent of the British Columbia Prohibition Act and the noticeable improvement in social conditions which its operation had brought about.

In Mr. Nelson's opinion, however, the influenza epidemic had assumed the proportion of a second advent of very peculiar conditions which in themselves had imposed an unusual test upon the statutory limitations of the present prohibition law. The speaker referred to the urgent demand for liquor from all quarters under, in his opinion, the mistaken belief that it was a specific whose liberal use would render immunity to the subject or cure the afflicted.

When the "Bars" Dropped.

"The great majority of medical men," he declared "had been able to handle the request for prescriptions previous to that, and to limit their issuance to a reasonable quantity, but as soon as the 'bars' were lowered a flood tide set in, which has failed to recede in the meantime. The result is, that although conditions are not nearly as bad as they were before, they are not nearly as good as we have a right to expect them to be. It is a trite saying," observed the Member on reflection, "that you cannot legislate a man into being good, but you can educate him."

Land Settlement.

Devoting a little time to land settlement matters, Mr. Nelson reminded the House that notwithstanding the scoffers, eight settlement areas already had been established in Central British Columbia and additional ones were to be established. He quoted figures to show that over 100,000 acres had been cruised and valued, 13,763 acres actually acquired by purchase, and of this quantity over 10,000 acres had been allotted and sold to settlers.

Nor did Mr. Nelson omit a suitable reference to the more effective operation of the machinery of the Land Settlement Board which had been set up by the amendments vesting it with powers of compulsory purchase.

Soldier Settlement.

Referring particularly to the soldier community plans of the Land Settlement Board, Mr. Nelson relied upon a report of the progress and prospects at the settlement near Creston, culled from the Nelson Daily News of January 20 last. Briefly citing the eulogy and prediction of success contained in the journal referred to, the speaker went on to congratulate the Government on the excellent work that had been carried out in this new field of agricultural development.

Mining.

The Member was of the opinion that the Mineral Survey and Development Act had proved a great boon to the prospector and had given a spirited stimulus to the mining industry of the Province. Operators and prospectors, he declared, had found it a marked convenience to have a qualified technical officer of the Government available for consultation in connection with the problems with which they were constantly confronted.

Memorable Visits.

Suitable reference was made by Mr. Nelson to the visit of His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the receptions tendered to Their Excellencies The Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the visits of Admiral and Lady Jellicoe, and of Secretary Daniels of the United States Navy Department, while the Member's congratulations to Mr. Speaker Keen on his recovery from his recent serious illness provoked warm applause from every member of the House.

Good Financing.

Nor did the Member omit reference to the wise administration of the Department of Finance which had resulted in rehabilitating the credit of the Province. He hoped it would be the policy of the Minister in charge to balance current expenditure with current revenue and to continue the practice of borrowing only on capital account.

Before moving the formal address in reply to His Honor's Speech, Mr. Nelson declared that in the strenuous times through which the country was passing there was no royal road to success. He was confident, however, that the wise policies and careful administration of the present Government would bring British Columbia safely through it all. Increased population he felt sure would result from these policies, while by the judicious development of the untold wealth in natural resources this Province would surmount all her difficulties and take her place as the premier Province of the Dominion.

There was loud and prolonged cheering as the Member for Slocan took his seat after formally moving that an humble address be presented to His Honor in reply to his gracious Speech from the Throne.

Dr. Sutherland Continues.

Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Liberal member for Revelstoke, immediately followed Mr. Nelson by seconding the address.

Serving the New Canadians

DURING the past twenty years Canada received three million new settlers of whom about one million were of foreign speech. The war interrupted immigration, but soon the march westward will begin again.

Mutual Requirements

What do we expect of these new citizens? Respect for Law and order, a measure of diligence, that they may not become a charge upon the community, and a willingness to adjust themselves to a new environment.

What do they expect of us, the native-born? Justice, sympathy and kindness. They are entitled also to the stimulating influences of great Canadian Ideals. They have a right to the Gospel of Christ, not only explained in theory, but worked out in practice by Christian men and women.

The Church Hampered

The Church has not been neglectful of these new Canadians, whether settled in the crowded cities, or on the Western plains. But the effort to reach them with the ministry of Religion has been made difficult for lack of Missionaries to overtake the work, and by inadequate financial means.

A Case of Misunderstanding

Many Church Members do not realize the magnitude of the task. Lacking complete understanding of the situation, they have not sought out spiritual leaders for these new Canadians, and have been content with former standards of giving. Even with a slowing-down of immigration, the needs have not been met. What will happen when the flood-tide rolls in again?

Look! A Study in Contrasts

In the year 1800, the United States had a population of 5,308,483. During the next twenty years, 184,000 immigrants arrived in American ports.

In 1901, Canada had a population of 5,371,315. During the next fifteen years, the immigration to this Dominion reached a total of 2,906,021.

From 1904 to 1914, Canada accepted 250,000 MORE immigrants than the United States received in the same period—despite the fact that the population of the Republic was ten times that of Canada.

Israel Zangwill and others speak of the United States as the melting-pot of the world, and marvel at the task of assimilating the new comers. WHAT WOULD THEY THINK OF THE PROBLEM IN CANADA?

Moulding the National Spirit

The great majority of immigrants now settled in the Dominion are men of good-will, with an aspiration for useful citizenship. They are helping to do the day's-work of this land for the advantage of us all. The future public opinion of Canada, the future moral stability of the nation depends upon the will and power of the Church to fulfil its trust to these New Canadians.

Motives for Activity

You are a Canadian, proud of your country, and deeply concerned for its future. You are a Christian, believing that the Gospel is the only dependable and invincible civilizing agency. You are urged to pray, to serve and to give, that the Home Missions of your Church may be properly sustained in this day of national emergency.

TENTH CRUSADE SUBJECT OF SPEECH

General Allenby's Campaign Will Be Told at Canadian Club

A telegram was received yesterday by President Cochrane, of the Canadian Club, accepting the invitation extended by him to Prof. E. A. Wicher, D.D., of San Anselmo Seminary, California, to address the club on General Allenby's campaign in Egypt and Palestine. The Canadian Club luncheon is arranged for Friday next, February 6, at the Empress Hotel at noon.

Professor E. A. Wicher, D. D., has just returned from a year's service with the British forces in Palestine. He was closely associated with General Allenby while in Palestine, and was by him introduced to his audience when he lectured at general headquarters. He has been the guest of the Khedive of Egypt and the members of his Government.

Professor Wicher during his stay in Palestine was the representative of the Archeological Institute in charge of the American School of Archeology in Jerusalem.

He is a Canadian by birth and education, having been born in Ontario in 1872. He graduated from the University of Toronto in 1895 with first class honors, securing the Edward Wilson gold medal. He received his master's degree in Toronto in 1896 and his B. O. in 1899. He later studied in the University of Halle, Germany, and spent three years in Japan.

Professor Wicher is honorary secretary of the Palestine Exploration Fund, and has been a frequent contributor of scientific articles in national periodicals.

He is an entertaining and forceful speaker. His address before the Canadian Club on Friday will deal with General Allenby's campaign in Egypt and Palestine and is being anticipated with keen interest by the members of the club.

On Friday evening at 8 o'clock Prof. Wicher will deliver a free public lecture in the auditorium of the High School on "Allenby at Armageddon," illustrated by a set of slides claimed to be second to none in America.

"So this is Leap Year."

"Yes, but I'm not afraid. When I was a small boy my mother taught me how to say 'no.'"

"BONE-DRY" ADVENT SENDS LEMONS UP

Influenza Outbreak Creates Great Demand For Stimulating Drinks

The advent of bone-dry prohibition in the United States and a serious epidemic of influenza over the whole continent have resulted in an advance to-day of $1.50 to $2 a case in the wholesale price of lemons.

Wholesalers all along the coast find lemons difficult to obtain and the demand keen. This is because lemons are taking the place of other potent concoctions in beverages. The outbreak of the influenza has caused a great demand for hot drinks and as the necessary requisites for the old-fashioned hot toddy are outlawed, or difficult to obtain, people are falling back on hot lemonade.

Partly because of the high prices prevalent during the Winter, the demand for apples has turned determinedly sluggish. Outside quotations show an increasingly easier tendency.

New Vegetables from 'Frisco.

A shipload of new cauliflower and other green stuff from California arrives here this afternoon from San Francisco. The demand for early vegetables is always strong, but this year will be higher than ever because of the high exchange rate against Canadian money.

Potatoes in other parts of the Province have been entirely cleaned out. Because of the potato famine some of the other cities have fallen back on Victoria and Vancouver Island. One or two carloads of the stock still on hand are being shipped away.

DIAMOND JUBILEE SERVICES ARE HELD

Celebration of Notable Anniversary in Anglican Church Has Begun

Special services were held in every Anglican Church throughout the Island and adjacent islands yesterday to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of the landing of the first Bishop of Columbia, Dr. George Hills, at Esquimalt in January, 1860.

The four Bishops of the Church in British Columbia, Archbishop Du Vernet, Caledonia; Bishop De Pencier, New Westminster; Bishop Doull, of Kootenay, and Bishop Schofield, of Columbia, were officiating at various services, and in connection with the Diamond Jubilee anniversary, the Synod meeting, and the Forward Movement drive, they are aided by two Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Dr. Sumner, of Portland, and Dr. Herman Page, of Spokane.

Dr. Sumner will be the chief speaker at the great mass meeting this evening at the Metropolitan Church in connection with the United National Forward Movement. Premier Oliver will take the chair.

Island Delegates Arrive.

Most of the clerical and lay delegates to the Diocesan Synod from points in the Island are expected to arrive in Victoria to-day. To-morrow the clergy of the diocese will meet in Christ Church Cathedral, where the Bishop of Spokane, Dr. Herman Page, will conduct a "Quiet Day," the first service beginning at 8 a. m. with celebration of Holy Communion.

Diamond Jubilee Service.

The concluding service of the Diamond Jubilee commemoration will take place to-morrow night in the Cathedral at 7.30 p. m., when the choirs from Anglican city churches will lead the singing and musical part of the service. The visiting Bishops and diocesan clergy will attend, and the anniversary sermon will be delivered by the Bishop of New Westminster, the Right Rev. Adam De Pencier. Owing to the large number of delegates and others attending, admission to the cathedral for this service is limited to those possessing tickets.

The First Bishop.

Although the Anglican Church is now celebrating the diamond jubilee of the foundation of the diocese, taking the date from the arrival of Bishop George Hills at Esquimalt on January 5, 1860, the work of the Anglican Church goes back a decade earlier on Vancouver Island. Rev. R. J. Staines was chaplain here in 1849, and was succeeded by the Rev. E. Cridge in 1855. At the opening of the Assembly in 1856 Mr. Cridge acted as chaplain.

The Hudson's Bay Company had the first church built for Mr. Cridge, which for four years was the only Anglican Church in the colony.

In 1858 letters patent were granted by the Imperial Government, forming the colonies of Vancouver Island and British Columbia into a diocese, and appointing the Rev. George Hills, D.D., as its first Bishop. He had formerly been incumbent of Great Yarmouth, and Honorary Canon of Norwich. He was consecrated in Westminster Abbey, February 24, 1859. During that year he was engaged in preparing for the work of the mission, and had the old St. John's Church consecrated, ready to be erected on arrival. The cost of the building was about $13,000, and it was consecrated late that year.

An address of welcome was presented to Dr. Hills on his arrival during January, and read by Rev. Edward Cridge, who afterwards became Dean.

Bishop Perrin, now Bishop of Willesden, held the See from 1892 to 1912, when he was succeeded by Rt. Rev. J. C. Roper, who was translated later to Ottawa. The late Bishop Scriven a pioneer clergyman, was the fourth Bishop of the See, and the present incumbent succeeded on the sudden death of Bishop Scriven while on a pastoral visit to the Comox district.

PROTESTS ASSESSMENT AS HE PAID FOR ALL IMPROVEMENTS

Because the present value of the land in his district is due "to improvements for which the owners are obligated to pay and no part of the expense whatever paid by the municipality," A. J. C. McDermott, of Shore Road, Uplands, heads the list of those appealing against assessments that Oak Bay municipality has levied on their property.

John Killen and Henry Gilbert are also vigorous in their protests against the way assessments are made high. Every ground open to them they appeal on.

So far there are twenty appeals ready for the Court of Revision, which opens a week from to-day.

Wests and Hutmen Are Left In Final of Soccer Competition

Yarrows' Draw With Wards Eliminates Latter Team From Race—Mariners Fight Hard With Knights of Columbus Eleven

Yarrows, who at one time looked as if they would have to withdraw from the league soccer fight, did a good turn to the Hutmen and the Wests Saturday afternoon. The Esquimalt shipbuilders were matched with the fighting Wards, who were out to pave their way to a play-off with the Knights of Columbus eleven or the Wests, but Yarrows' eleven put a stop to their ambitions. A three-goal draw made it necessary for the Wards to drop the one point they could not afford to drop, and the race now stands between the Wests and the Knights of Columbus men. One more win, and the Knights of Columbus men have the silverware tucked away.

The Results.

Results Saturday were:
K. of C., 4; Harbor Marine, 2.
Wards, 3; Yarrows, 3.
Foundation, 2; Army and Navy, 0.
Comrades, 3; G. W. V. A., 2.

The Mariners did not live up to their ambition of beating the prospective champions, but they made a great fight for it, and were in the lead by the only goal scored when the whistle blew for half time. Not only had they the lead, but they had given the league leader's defence a busy time during their first part of the game, and had frequently called upon the Hutmen's capable goalie to show his ability. The score was soon tied on the resumption by Jimmy Allan, who got his head to the ball and put it through the posts and from a corner soon after Allan gave the Hutmen the lead.

The excitement was at a high pitch, and the Mariners' supporters rooted lustily when their favorites a few minutes later equalled the score, Petch heading through after the forward line had made a pretty movement. One from Brass and one from Muir, however, put the game on ice for the Hutmen.

Each team had one man short in the Yarrows-Wards game. Yarrows looked like winning in the first half when they took the lead by three goals to one, but the Wards came back strong in the second half. Newbiggin scored a couple for the Esquimalt team within a quarter of an hour after the game opened. Grimes got the third. Pettigrew, Totty and Cummings were responsible for the Wards markers.

Intermediate League.

The game called between the Wests and the Firemen at the Willows had to be postponed on account of the bereavement of one of the firemen. The members of the Firemen's team attended the funeral.

The Metropolis boys won from the Army and Navy at Work Point by 2-0.

Yarrows intermediates came out on top at Beacon Hill, getting six goals to the three obtained by the Postal Service.

LARGE CROWDS AT THE GOLF LINKS YESTERDAY

Attracted by ideal springlike weather golfers visited the Colwood, Oak Bay and Esquimalt courses in great numbers yesterday. At each of the three clubs the largest number of players for many months' past is reported, and the players were able to enjoy golf uninterrupted by rain throughout the whole day. The bad condition of the road was the only feature to mar the pleasure of the Colwood club members. The course was in fine condition, with the exception of one or two of the fairways. The moss in some instances had become a little spongy in the thawing out process. On the journey to the links a bad stretch on the Burnside Road caused some inconvenience to automobile parties.

Canadian and Lake Ontario groups are soon to be formed.

D. M. GRANT'S TEAM BEAT BROTHER'S TEAM

Only Small Attendance at Charity Game at Oak Bay

D. M. Grant's fifteen beat Brother C. G.'s team by a score of fourteen points to six in the charity rugby game played at Oak Bay Saturday afternoon. There were less than 200 spectators on hand. The teams were:

D. M. Grant's fifteen—Full back, C. S. Vincent; three-quarters, C. Vincent, E. Gillespie, J. H. Gillespie, D. M. Grant; half-backs, N. Robertson and D. Grubb; forwards, W. J. Baum, J. B. Acland, H. Wilson, R. D. Travis, J. McRae, R. H. McIlree, Green and T. Matson.

C. G. Grant's team—Full back, H. A. Tomalin; three-quarters, J. R. Matson, S. M. Gillespie, C. S. Cowan and R. B. Ker; half-backs, C. G. Grant and W. B. Wilson; forwards, H. Robinson, J. Barraclough, E. H. Pendray, G. McRae, W. B. Monteith, McGann, W. B. Judd and Randal.

W. C. Moresby refereed the game.

D. M.'s team was aggressive from the opening. Grubb early in the game crossed the line for the first score which went unconverted. Soon after G. C. Grant hurt his head in falling on the ball and was unable to lead his side for the rest of the game. N. Robertson crossed the line for the winning team, and D. M. Grant was successful with the shot. Pendray scored for G. C.'s team, making the score eight-three at half time. D. M. Grant and Tim Matson put D. M.'s team further ahead in the second half by getting over the line but in neither instance was the try converted. Jack Matson registered for G. C. Grant's team.

SATURDAY'S GAMES IN SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE

Four games were played in the Sunday School basketball series at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening. St. Mary's Intermediates fielded a weakened team and were unable to stop the First Presbyterian Veterans.

Veterans—Saunders, Veitch, A. Bell, Pollock, Campbell-Brown.

St. Mary's — Davenport, Price, Shopland, Lorenz, Brandon.

Score: Veterans, 62; St. Mary's, 4.

Overtime Game.

Christ Church Intermediates and St. Andrew's staged the first overtime game of the season. The Christ Church boys played a whirlwind game in which the score was tied many times in the second period, the score standing at 28 points each when the final whistle blew. In the extra ten minutes' play St. Andrew's managed to pull away from their opponents and won by 40 to 30.

Christ Church—Bothwell, Christie, Anthony, Symons, Clark.

St. Andrew's—MacLean, Jackson, Squire, Main, Meldram. Abe Hole refereed the two Intermediate games.

Seniors.

In the Senior game St. Mary's gave the First Presbyterians a hard game. "Tiny" Marshall has been strengthening his team up lately, and will make all the other teams step lively in future. St. Mary's led by three points at one stage of the game, but the "Firsts" got busy towards the end of the second period, Angus McKinnon and Copithorne netting enough baskets to make the game safe. Goodacre, the new man on St. Mary's team, played a good game, scoring 14 points for his team.

St. Mary's—L. Fatt, W. Brynjolfsen, J. Marshall, R. Goodacre, W. Watson.

First Presbyterian — R. Lyons, Angus McKinnon, G. Copithorne, W. Hudson, Archie McKinnon.

Crusaders and First Presbyterians played an exhibition game at 9:30.

Ladies.

Owing to many cases of sickness, it is necessary to postpone the ladies' games scheduled for this week at the First Presbyterian gymnasium. St. Mary's ladies have withdrawn from the league, and a new schedule will be drawn up. It is hoped that play will be resumed next week, the following games being scheduled for February 11: Presbyterian "A" vs. Metropolitans; Presbyterian "B" vs. St. Andrew's.

The Senior and Intermediate games will be played this week, according to schedule.

THIRD ROUND OF ENGLISH CUP TIE LOOKS INTERESTING

Nine First Divison Teams, Six Second and One Southern Left

One of the outstanding features of the second round of the English cup ties played on Saturday, was that every game except one resulted in the elimination of one of the opposing teams, thus necessitating only one replayed game. The teams who battled to a draw on Saturday were Burnley and Sutherland at Turf Moor, where the final score was one all. It is more than probable that Sunderland will beat Burnley in the re-play which takes place in a few days at Roker Park.

Surprise of the Day.

Huddersfield Town of the Second Division provided the surprise of the day, by defeating the crack Newcastle United team at Newcastle by the only goal of the game. Birmingham put paid to the account of Darlington, inflicting a very severe defeat on the Northeastern team. The heaviest defeat of the day was that sustained by Bury, who lost to West Ham by six goals to nothing. Chelsea playing at Stamford Bridge, made no mistake about defeating Swindon Town, the final score being four goals to nothing in favor of the Pensioners. Bradford just managed to defeat Castleford by the odd goal in five, which was not a very meritorious performance.

A Rude Shock.

The supporters of Manchester United received a rude shock when Aston Villa defeated the United at Old Trafford by two goals to one. Plymouth Argyle, of the Southern League, surprised Barnsley by the decisive manner in which they knocked the famous Yorkshire team's cup-hunting aspirations on the head, scoring four goals to the Yorkshire men's one. Leicester Fosse by defeating Manchester City by three clear goals, have taken all interest out of the English Cup ties for Manchester soccer fans, as both Manchester teams are out of it for this season. Notts County's one goal victory over Middlesborough means that the followers of soccer in the Northeast of England, now have only Sunderland to look to to sustain their interest in the cup ties.

A Close Game.

Briston City, of the Second Division, managed to defeat the Arsenal by the only goal of the game, but the South is well represented yet by such teams as Chelsea, Tottenham and West Ham. Tottenham Hotspur are apparently trying to make a record for themselves this season by topping the Second Division and also winning the English cup. Their defeat of West Stanley on Saturday left no room for doubt as to their playing abilities. However, "there's many a slip 'twixt cup and lip."

Bradford City defeated Sheffield United by two goals to one, and thus left the famous cutlery centre without a representative to stimulate their interest in the remaining rounds of the cup.

There are only nine First Division teams now remaining in the English cup competition, six Second Division teams, and one Southern League team. There should be some interesting draws for the third round.

London, Feb. 1.—(By Canadian Press)—The English Association cup second round matches were the main atraction of the football programme on Saturday. There were sixteen contests and all were witnessed by enormous crowds. In London especially, which has seen a wonderful increase in the popularity of association football, and indeed all outdoor sports, it is estimated that the game brings nearly a million and a half passengers every Saturday to the underground railways alone and 25,000,000 such passengers have been carried since the opening of the football season last September. Three cup matches were played in London Saturday with probably no fewer than 150,000 attending them. The Chelsea contest with Swindon drew 70,000.

THINKS SENATORS CAN FINISH ON TOP

Manager Geo. Straith Offers Prize to Team Sharpshooter

Manager George Straith believes that the Senators can pull off not only a win to-night in the amateur hockey series, but he is confident that the septette can run right through to the championship from now on. The Two Jacks are out to-night to put a crimp in George's ambitions. The Elks and the Great War Veterans stage the second battle of the evening. As previously mentioned, to-night's hockey feast may leave the four clubs all on an even footing on the league ladder.

"Weakness in shooting," says the optimistic George, "is the only thing that has held the Senators back. Captain Wickson has the bunch well trained and they go down like champions. It is the final touch that is lacking. With the shooting improved I believe the Dudleigh Cup is assured."

Straith has offered a prize for the player on the Senator's septette who secures the best goal average to-night. Dubbie Kerr will be the judge. Two good shots at goal, although they may both be stopped by the eagle-eyed Watson, will count one hundred per cent and as Manager George points out it may not be the man who gets the greatest number of goals that will win the prize.

The Reason Why?

Just take a stroll down Johnson Street and view SAM FLASH'S STORE.

Compared with prices charged elsewhere, why does not FLASH charge more?

In quality, his goods you know can really not be beat,

By any high-class retail store that fronts on Government Street.

But rents on Government Street are high and ex's are far more,

Than what it costs SAM FLASH to run in Johnson Street—his store.

And that's the reason why he still can help keep prices down

And thus will make his store—though small a store of some renown.

By selling togs of all description to satisfy mankind,

He hopes to please his customers, and trusts they'll bear in mind—

Sam does not use his photograph to advertise his biz.

He'd rather you admire his goods than criticize his phys'.

LOOKING THINGS OVER

The Offside Rule.

The offside rule in hockey is often the subject of discussion and for the benefit of fans who have been making inquiries here is how it reads in the Pacific Coast rules:

Each rink shall divide the ice surface into three equal sections by drawing a colored line, four inches or more in width, across the ice and up the sides fences at right angles to the length of the ice. When a player hits the puck in either of the end sections, any one of the same side who at such moments of hitting is nearer the opponents' goal line is out of play and may not touch the puck himself or any way whatever prevent another player from doing so until the puck has been played, with the exception as provided by in Section 13. All players shall be considered on side in the centre section of the ice. No player shall take the puck offside if it has been played by one of his own side from the end section. Should the puck strike the side fences in the centre section and go over into either of the end sections, every player shall be considered on side on the play unless the player crosses the oppponents' sectional line ahead of the play. The referee shall order a face wherever the infringement occurred. No. 13 Section referred to above reads: The goalkeeper may play the puck to any player on his side of the sectional line and same shall not be called offside.

They Can Break Even.

The even way the amateur race is running is just an indication how closely four teams battling for a hockey title can run during the season. to-night there is more than a possibility that the four teams will all be tied with an even break each and the race will become keener than ever. Yet no one for one moment has been foolish enough to offer a suggestion that the games are "fixed." Among those who exercise their chins talking "fix" in the pro games are some who frequently refer to the fluctuations on the league table during the season. The four club amateur race shows just how even the positions on the table may go. The fixers certainly had Victoria slated for a win last Friday, but they are as irresponsible as they are inconsistent. They soon found another reason why Seattle should have won when they found their first calculations were upset.

Some Golf Stories.

Golf has produced almost as many tall stories as fishing. That truth is just as strange as fiction is shown by a real incident in a match over the Royal West Norfolk links at Brancaster, England, where the Prince of Wales and his brothers were golfing last week. Colonel E. S. Evans, C.B., had driven his ball towards the seventh hole, when he saw a large grey crow swoop down, pick up the ball and fly away with it.

Veracity is proved by the added detail that the ball was not recovered. Had the story been a romance of the "nineteenth hole," the crow would assuredly have helped the colonel to do the seventh hole in one.

Other Freaks.

Other strange adventures of golf balls in flight which have been credibly chronicled in the past are:

Hare killed by long drive by Captain Ferguson at Kispendle—1904.

Gull and weasel killed in one afternoon in Border championship at Hawick—1906.

Two fighting weasels killed by one ball at Dollar—1908.

Trout weighing 2 lb., killed by golfer's drive into the Trent at Newark—1907.

Radical Tennis Changes.

A substitute simplified scoring rule for handicap tennis tournaments will be offered for consideration at the annual meeting of the National Lawn Tennis Association in New York next Friday by officials of the Metropolitan Association. According to the plan, games will be eliminated and the set would go to the player winning 30 points. The service would change at the end of each five points and the players exchange courts at the end of the fifth, fifteenth and twenty-fifth points. A suggestion also will be made that the foot fault rule proposed by the Rules Revision Committee be amended to provide that the "server must keep one foot constantly on the ground until the service is delivered."

ENGLISHMEN HAVE EDGE ON FRENCH FIFTEEN

London, Feb. 2. — The Northern Rugby Union programme suffered from a strike by the Wigan players on account of a wage dispute. The Wigan match against Swindon was accordingly dropped, otherwise the proceedings under professional rugby ran their usual course.

The rugby union rules furnished a contest at Twickenham, only second in popular interest to the cup fights. This was the international gathering which brought together a splendid crowd of rugby followers quite distinct from the bulk of the association supporters. Frenchmen met the English fifteen, and a keen contest was witnessed. Though the Englishmen won by eight points to three, that is, by a placed goal and a penalty goal, to a try, the visitors showed marked improvement over any previous display. In the previous nine matches England won with a big balance to spare but this season the French have run both Scotland and England to five points.

BADMINTON.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy won the mixed doubles in the badminton tourney just completed at the Drill Hall.

The following doubles were decided upon to play at Vancouver next Saturday:

Ladies' doubles: Miss Peatt and Miss Idiens; Miss Grey and Miss Leeming; Miss Lawson and Mrs. Meredith.

PRESENT HIGH TEAMS BEAT PAST STUDENTS

Two Close and Interesting Games Watched by 100 Spectators

The present High School Girls beat the past High School Girls by a score of eight to six, and the present boys beat the old boys by a score of 33 to 22 at basketball at the High School Saturday.

The present school team was represented by the Misses Bell, Grubb, Martin, Easton and Sangster, while the past High School team included the Misses Grey, McVittie, Wootton, Bell and Grubb. Miss Grubb starred for the winners with eight clear goals. For the past team Miss Grey took high with four goals and Miss Wootton scored two.

Messrs. Hopkins, MacEachern, Parfitt, Jones and Emsley Yeo played for the Old Boys, and recalled to many present the old High teams of some years ago. Hopkins starred with eight goals, MacEachern next with six, with Jones drawing with six, and Parfitt scoring two.

The present school team fielded Messrs. Forbes, Bickell, Jones, Lewis and Boyd. Bickell secured five goals, Jones six, Boyd ten and Webster twelve. The present school team had all the advantage of infinite practice this last season in the House League of the Y. M. C. A. series, and they showed the advantage this had been to them.

Bob Whyte made a capable referee for both games.

NATIONAL HOCKEY GAME DRAWS BIG

At 20 Below Ottawa Rink Crowded; Cully Wilson Draws Major

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—(By Canadian Press)—The Ottawa Senators defeated Canadiens, 11 to 3, at the Laurier Avenue arena Saturday night, thus capturing the first half of the championship race in the National Hockey League. Seven thousand three hundred persons, the largest crowd that has patronized a match in Ottawa for many years, witnessed the destructive struggle, which was played over a perfect sheet of ice. The mercury registered about 20 below, but the rink was packed to the rafters and hundreds stood up around the back. The police, in fact, stopped the sale of tickets and many had to be denied admission. Not for many years was there such interest in connection with hockey or any other game in the capital.

Quebec, Jan. 31.—Quebec Bull Dogs defeated Toronto St. Patricks here Saturday night, 10 to 6, in the National Hockey League game.

Although they were four goals ahead at the end of the game, the issue always was in doubt until Cully Wilson was given a major penalty by Cooper Smeaton in the third period, for hooking Carey as the latter was about to shoot and during his absence, with the score 7 to 6 for Quebec, the locals ran in the goal that put the game on ice. The match attracted the smallest crowd of the season, partly due to the extremely cold weather, but the brand of hockey put up was clean and fast.

HIS WIFE'S LOGIC.

And the main reason why a man's wife thinks he isn't getting all the salary he deserves is because it is less than she thinks she needs.—Dallas News.

In "The Miracle Man" at Dominion

THERE are a good many people who would like to make love to pretty Betty Compson, a beautiful and clever screen player. But remarkably few of those so minded have even got so far as the first stages. "Big Fella," the stern-eyed dog at Betty's side, does not believe in romance and as Miss Compson's guardian he is able to put these theories into practice. Persons who show undue attentions to jealous "Big Fella's" pretty mistress are apt to find themselves summarily chased across open lots. Probably this dog will have his hands—or paws—full after Betty's work in the George Loane Tucker production, "The Miracle Man," a superb Paramount-Artcraft picture has been seen and admired.

CANADIAN STAR SKATER CHARGES FALSE ARREST

Montreal, Feb. 2.—Russell Wheeler, Canada's premier skater, may demand from the United States Government, through the British Ambassador, reparation for false arrest.

Young Wheeler, a member of the Montreal Athletic Association, was arrested by United States soldiers upon an order from a United States officer at Saranac Lake, where he had gone to represent Canada and the Montreal Athletic Association at the Winter carnival. The apparent reason was that he insisted on practicing upon the rink set apart for the speed skating races. It is said that he was confined to the barracks and kept afterward under strict surveillance for the remainder of his stay.

Mr. Wheeler was a member of the Canadian expeditionary force during the war.

Amendments to the constitution and plans for the next year's work are among the other matters to come before the meeting.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Achilles Mines, Ltd.

Mr. Malcolm E. Davis, managing director of the Achilles Mines, Limited, at Cranbrook, who is in Vancouver, says development work on the properties of the company in East Kootenay has exposed 2,240,000 long tons of very rich ore, assaying from $42 to $122 per ton on a basis of 15 cents per pound for the refined metal. He says this represents but a fraction of the ore deposits in the property, the total value of which the company estimates at more than $300,000,000. He describes the supply of low-grade ore as inexhaustible. The properties have been purchased from the discoverers by the Achilles Mines, Limited, under a bonding agreement, with a view to installing the necessary equipment and immediately starting mining on a large scale. A concentrator is to be constructed at the mines to minimize the haulage of the ores.

RUSSIAN TEXTILE INDUSTRY.

According to The Ekonomitscheskaja Shisnj, the textile industry of Soviet Russia is in serious difficulties. Since 1913 linen prices have risen by 800 per cent, yarn by 1,100-1,500 per cent and ready-made goods by more than 2,000 per cent. In the Government of Jaroslav the yarn production has decreased by a third since 1918, and in Kostramer the textile output has gone down to a fourth. During the Soviet rule the working efficiency of all branches shows a decline of 30 to 95 per cent from peace production, whilst expenses and wages have risen by 3,000-5,000 per cent. Cloth factories employ 30 per cent more workers, produce 30 per cent less and prices are raised to 4,000 per cent.

BREAKS HEART OF MAN WHO SCOFFED

Mary Pickford in Story of the Kentucky Hills at Royal

When Pendleton Gray met Mavis Hawn, the Kentucky mountain girl, he was constrained to scoff at her. He didn't realize that ten years later the same Mavis shining under the brilliancy of education would break his heart. This is one of the situations in "Heart O' The Hills," adapted from the story by John Fox, Jr., and in which Mary Pickford makes her latest appearance at the Royal Victoria Theatre, commencing to-night.

As Mavis Hawn, Miss Pickford takes the role of a girl whose father has been killed by an unidentified mountaineer and whose mother is on the verge of re-marrying. Mavis opposes the marriage for she believes that the suitor merely wants to wed her mother in order to get possession of valuable coal lands owned by the Hawns.

Oddly, Mavis is in love with the son of the widower who is courting her mother. Both Mavis and young Jason Honeycutt are displeased with the life they have been leading and they plan to marry when they are of sufficient age. Other influences enter their lives, however, and they separate in going to different schools.

They return to their mountain homes in time to find that their parents' marriage has been a terrible mistake. Widow Hawn is frail and weak under the cruel treatment of the rough Steve Honeycutt and she sorely regrets the marriage. Mavis and Jason arrive at the home of their unhappy parents to hear the Widow Hawn threaten to disclose the fact that Steve Honeycutt killed Mavis' father.

Enraged the elder Honeycutt makes ready to choke Widow Hawn to death when the rifles of Mavis and Jason are brought into action. Then a most pleasing incident in the story takes place.

"THE MIRACLE MAN" IS FILM MASTERPIECE

Fine Story in the Dominion Picture Will Grip Audience

Published originally as a novel in Munsey's magazine, written by Frank L. Packard and later dramatized by George M. Cohan and presented with phenomenal success on Broadway, the Paramount-Artcraft picture, "The Miracle Man," came to the Dominion Theatre this afternoon. As a motion picture this absorbing story has been hailed by the critics as one of the finest productions ever seen on the screen. With scenes laid in the haunts of criminals in New York's Chinatown, in a little village on the side of a roaring ocean, the opportunity for wonderful photographic effects has been realized to the limit.

But the chief interest is in the striking story, which centers about the venerable figure of an old patriarch, who is credited with the power to heal the sick and make crippled limbs whole again. To him come Tom Burke and his band of crooks from New York's Chinatown with the idea of cashing in on his powers. But it doesn't work out as they calculated, for hidden away in each of them is a leaven of good, which slowly comes to the surface under the influence of their wholesome environment. In a most marvelous way the criminals are reclaimed from the paths of crime.

A cast of unusual ability enacts the important roles in the picture, headed by Thomas Meihan, a well-known leading man, and including Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Joseph J. Dowling, Lon Chaney, W. Lawson Butt, J. M. Dumont, Lucille Hutton and F. A. Turner.

Whenever possible patrons are advised to attend the matinees. As capacity houses nightly, with many unable to obtain admission, has been the result in every theatre where this picture has already been shown. "The Miracle Man" will be run strictly on the following schedule. Starting daily at 1.30, 3.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30.

OLD SWEETHEART THEME OF FILM

Billie Burke at Variety Theatre in "Sadie Love" This Week

Have you a "twin soul?" It's nothing like an athletic heart or the housemaid's knee, but it frequently causes even more trouble. Billie Burke is afflicted with one in her new Paramount - Artcraft picture, "Sadie Love," which opened at the Variety Theatre to-day. It takes the form of an old sweetheart who shows up about five minutes after she has been pronounced the wife of Count Luigi Pallavicini, a handsome Italian. Forthwith Billie imagines herself in love with her old flame, though he has grown fat and unlovely since their amorous affair. She plans an elopement with him, but his wife and an excitable French friend of the Italian husband foil the little scheme and offer some complications on their own account. It is a most laughable and delightful mess, which finally turns out happily for all concerned.

The original of the picture is Avery Hopwood's farce by the same name, which was produced with success on Broadway a few years ago. James L. Crane, Jed Prouty and Helen Montrose are included in the supporting cast, and the production was directed by John S. Robertson.

DOUBLE BILL AT COLUMBIA THIS WEEK

William Hart in Picture That Is Different From His Western Roles

William S. Hart is a firm believer in the value of contrasts in motion picture production. Also, he is determined that William S. Hart shall be known as something more than a "two-gun man" who can do only strictly Western roles. Those are two of the reasons why "John Petticoats" his newest Paramount-Artcraft picture, supervised by Thomas H. Ince, which came to the Columbia Theatre to-day to stay all week, is so different in its story and mood from "Wagon Tracks," his previous release. The latter is a gripping tale of the historic Sante Fe trail, grimly dramatic and touched with tragedy. In "John Petticoats," on the other hand, Mr. Hart starts as a rough lumberjack, but suddenly thrown by his inheritance of a modiste's shop intc the fashionable life of New Orleans. The result is a picture rich in comedy, though not lacking in the big dramatic situations that are inseparable from a Hart production.

A fine cast supports the star, including Winifred Westover as leading woman. The picture was directed by Mr. Hart and Lambert Hillyer. G. Gardner Sullivan wrote the story.

"FIGHTING DESTINY" AT ROMANO NOW

Harry T. Morey Presents Thrilling Spectacle in Vitagraph Film

Big dramatic scenes abound in "Fighting Destiny," Vitagraph's feature starring Harry T. Morey, which will be seen in the Romano Theatre for three days. The hero trails to the depths of the underworld of a great city his fiancee, who vanishes on their wedding eve. A man of great influence, he is refused any aid by police or political friends, and even her father, a former governor, warns him to give up the search. But Larry (Mr. Morey) single handed battles all the sinister influences and solves the mystery and finds his trust in the girl's love was justified. His adventures and escapes from death are screened with many a thrill, especially his hand to hand fight with the habitues of the resorts he visits. There also are remarkable scenes of Chinatown dens.

Out of the Underworld

IMAGINE the worst sharks that exist in New York's Chinatown—a daring cracksman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a faker who counterfeits any deformity, a dope-fiend as sly as a weasel.

Imagine such crooks in a little village, invading the lives of other human beings as good as these are bad—the acid of sin striving to bite into the gold of pure hearts.

Imagine! . . . .

Imagine all you've known of good and bad in this world, and even then you can't imagine the wondrous appeal of "The Miracle Man."

PANTAGES BILL IS VARIETY LADENED

This Week's Programme Has Laughs and Comedy, With Excellent Features

Right at a time when the Pantages patrons will welcome it, comes a sprightly musical comedy tabloid at the headline attraction of the new bill of vaudeville. It has been several weeks since one of these features has occupied the headline position at the "Pan" and "The Brazilian Heiress" has excellence and novelty.

The act is from the show-shop of Russell and Greenwald, and features pretty Miss Frankie Kelcey, one of the niftiest pieces of femininity which graces the footlights. Fred de Silva is chief of the male entertainers in the act.

The thing is a concoction of some rhyme, a little reason, a lot of pulchritude, music and dancing. The chorus is a bevy of half a dozen clever singers and dancers, strikingly costumed. The stage settings are unusually gorgeous and elaborate.

A comedy sketch with a laugh for every second and a few in between is what Martha Hamilton and company present as "Oh, You Women." Miss Hamilton and four men make up the cast.

The sketch from the pen of Joseph L. Browning, deals with a wife who has the instalment buying mania. When hubby comes home one day, to find that his wife has got a lot more things on the "dollar down, dollar every time we catch you" plan there is trouble, in the midst of which enters the collector, who demands his instalment.

When he fails to get it, the furniture begins to disappear, and as even the clothes on the back of wife and hubby were bought on the instalment plan, you can imagine that there are a few amusing moments.

Marconi brothers are an inimitable pair of accordeon players. They have returned from overseas where they had a tremendous popularity with the soldiers. They left Fred Stone's Jack-O'Lantern production to enlist, and have but lately been demobilized. They play the accordion as few can play that instrument, and are intensely amusing as they tell the story of their experiences.

Jimmy Gildea and Joe Phillips are a pair of comedians with a clever burlesque act of talking, dancing and singing. Jimmy Gildea formerly was a musical comedy comedian, and has a unique line of fun to dispense, as well an nimble toes on which he dances cleverly.

James Lichter is a pianologist with an act which holds the interest from the moment the curtain rings up to the time it drops on his last bow. He has a piano act which is different from the rest.

Lieut. Harry Berry and Miss, as he calls her, have a versatile act of all that Berry learned in the army outside of military things. With the assistance of Miss he does some juggling, some balancing, plays the bones, talks and dances. He is one of those clean-cut acts which please everyone.

Added to this programme of vaudeville numbers is the fifth episode of the popular serial motion picture for the screen, "Bound and gagged."

The sunlight of happiness seldom falls upon a shady reputation.

A Properly Filled Tooth Cannot Decay

Careful workmanship is essential in the treatment of decayed teeth that require to be filled. This is one department of dental practice in which we excel. So carefully and thoroughly do we prepare each tooth that requires to be filled and so dependable are the materials we use that satisfactory results are at all times assured. If for any reason a tooth filled at this office should prove unsatisfactory within a reasonabe space of time, we are only too pleased to go over the process again and correct any defects that may have developed.

You will find the service at this dental office at all times satisfactory. It is an office that you can conscientiously recommend your friends to come to.

AMUSING FARCE AT PRINCESS THEATRE

Big Audiences Laugh Heartily at "Strange Adventures of Miss Brown"

"The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown," kept a big audience in a state of mirth at the Princess Theatre on Saturday afternoon when the Princess players gave the opening performance of this well-known farce. Although the play is almost as hoary-headed as "Charley's Aunt," and has been played the world over, it regains a certain freshness and spontaneity of fun as produced by this company of gifted amateurs. For three acts a succession of diverting situations merrily entangle themselves until the final denouement when all is straightened out.

The principal role, that of Miss Brown, was inimitably carried by H. J. Davis, whose re-appearance after a considerable absence from the Princess Stage was cordially welcomed by local playgoers. To this dual role of the gallant Captain of the Dragoons, masquarading as a demure schoogirl in order to be near his young wife (a Ward in Chancery) Mr. Davis brought a delightful sense of comedy, combined with admirable restraint. He received excellent support in Miss Hickman, who made a very charming schoolgirl-wife, carrying a somewhat heavy role with ease and insouciance. Mrs. Beilby found in the role of Miss Romney, a schoolmistress of early Victorian type and ideas, a part which gave ample scope for her unusual talent, while Miss Tayler and Miss G. Hickman made the most of their small parts as boarders at Cicero House School.

As M. Stichinofski, a fiery and impressionable professor of music, R. N. Hincks furnished much of the comedy element of the second and third acts, his performance adding but another to his long list of personal successes. S. T. Hankey, as a pompous and officious solicitor, Mr. Hibbertson; W. Tayler as the breezy Major O'Gallaher; Mrs. Tayler as his nervous but well-meaning wife; Stewart G. Clark as the detective, and R. T. Ward as Private Docherty, all contributed materially to the success of the play.

"The Strange Adventures of Miss Brown" will run for the remainder of this week, with the exception of tonight when there will be no performance, and Victorians in search of wholesome fun should not fail to see the comedy.

To Overcome Winter Complexion Troubles

If the chill air causes your skin to dry and scale or become unduly red or spotted, before you go to bed spread a thin layer of ordinary mercolized wax over your entire face. Remove next morning with warm water. This is the ideal complexion treatment for the winter girl. The wax gently absorbs the dead particles of surface skin, so gradually there's no discomfort. This gives the underlying skin a chance to breathe and to show itself. In a week or so the new and younger skin is wholly in evidence and you have a really matchless complexion. Naturally all its defects disappear with the discarded cuticle—as chaps, roughness, blotches, pimples, freckles, blackheads. Usually an ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drugstore, is enough to renovate even the worst complexion.

SOCIETY BAND AT ORPHEUM FRIDAY

Jolly Trio in Vaudeville Will Please Wide Circle of First Nighters

Music of a new kind, so-called "jazz," yet not "jazz," so far removed and elevated from the ordinary tinpannic gyrationary performance so common and at times so tiresome, by a company of ten artists, headed by Henry Santry, will be a headline offering at the Orpheum this week. These artists have specialized in this forte. Mr. Santry, himself, is a famous baritone, and his voice has been heard in every manner of musical production. It is not often that a real vocalist lends himself to this sort of music, so a man of Mr. Santry's reputation comes under the head of a novelty and his society band is one of the sensations of latter day vaudeville.

Prettiness, cleverness and gracefulness, combined with the freshness of youth, make the Lightner Girls a most effective feminine duo. Add to this the briskness and neatness of Newton Alexander, and vaudeville has indeed a jolly trio. They demonstrate that songs cleverly and delicately sung invariably appeal.

Harry Jolson, a brother of Al. Jolson, will be on the bill this week. Harry doesn't prefer to be known as the brother of Al, for he stands on his own merits. As an operatic blackface comedian he stands ace high. His standing is par excellence. He has a fine singing voice and his methods are much on the order of the late George Evans.

Dan Bruce and Margot Duffet have a new playlet called "Through the Keyhole." It is described as a novelty surprise comedy, and is in two scenes. It was written especially for these players, who are both artists of high ability and quality. Their portrayals are great and have given the stage many capable characterizations.

Maria Lo, the famous poseuse in her new artistic creation, "Art Studies," affords a glimpse into the halls of the greatest art galleries of the world. She will bring to the vision of her audience famous works of art reproduced by human beings who have studied the poses so carefully as to make them deceptive to the most critical eye.

Hubert Kinney and Corinne, in a brand new dance production with a series of five interpellations, will be a splendid offering on this week's bill. A dance needs something besides knowledge or technique. The covering is abandon, grace, good looks and apparent enjoyment of the work. These qualities are what make Kinney and Corinne stand out sharply in the vaudeville firmament.

Two Speed Boys, they call themselves, Kennedy and Nelson. They perform an original gymnastic routine with precision and skill. They work as a well oiled machine, without a flaw. But all the time they work on high gear. They have speed, "pep" and ginger to carry them through. Theirs is a never-miss, sure-fire act.

BOKHARA IS CITY OF MOSQUES

Advance of Bolsheviki Brings Bokhara Into Limelight Again

"Once more the red of revolution is to take a place among the rainbow hues of the mud flower pot of Central Asia, if recent London dispatches telling that the Russian reds have taken the capital of the khanate of Bokhara are true," according to a bulletin from the National Geographic Society.

"Bokhara, dusty and tawny in tone, is nevertheless a colorful city because of the striking costumes of the male inhabitants. The women, clad in sombre tones and hiding their faces behind horsehair veils which resemble window screening, avail themselves of a protective coloration which enables them to move like shadows about the ancient city. But the Bokhara male, be he Usbeg, Sart, Persian or Tajik, utilizes all the colors and tints of the solar spectrum in his costume.

Is City of Mosques.

"Bokhara is an important religious centre. It has 364 mosques. With a practically unknown railway running south to the Afghan frontier, its location in the midst of Central Asia gives it a strategic importance that is little appreciated.

"The khanate of Bokhara has an area about equal to that of Utah, but with four times the population. Since the outbreak of the war, its fortunes have varied. Part of the time it has been an independent khanate, showing its prerogative by taking up the rails of the trans-Caspian Railway which passed through its territory. Several times it has been under the control of the Bolshevik forces. The Amir had a picturesque army of about 11,000 soldiers, many of them carelessly lounging along the stone passageway which leads up to the ark or castle.

"On this incline, in front of the royal residence, formerly there was enacted every Friday morning a ceremony impressive in its dignity and dazzling in its color effects. Hundreds of solemn mullahs, clad in bright silk robes of stick candy stripes or gorgeous golden suns on purple fields, belted with silver, and with candy buckles as large as salad plates, gathered here in impressive rows, each with a priceless prayer rug beneath his feet.

Not of Dashing Type.

"These were not the dashing types which once made Mohammedanism a power from Mecca to Gibraltar but the ceremonialists whose religion is a thing of dignity and prosperity, founded on trade rather than a life in the saddle. In unison they bow low so that only broad backs can be seen, but a moment later all are erect with their spotless white turbans the most prominent feature in a scene so colorful that only an Oriental sun could harmonize with it.

"Bokhara is architecturally unimpressive but nowhere are there more attractive Oriental bazaars. Brass smiths vie with goldsmiths to add the glint of glowing metal to the half light of the covered souks and there the makers of peculiar Bokhara caps display their brightly colored wares, the edges glistening with soft furs from Siberia.

Camels Still Carry Goods.

"In spite of the branch railway which runs from Old Bokhara with its mud walls to Kagan, or New Bokhara on the Central Asian line, much of the traffic in the dusty city of the Usbegs still is borne on the backs of lazy-footed philosophic camels, calmly chewing away in spite of the political changes which mean little in their nomad lives.

"Bokhara has given its name to one of the loveliest of rugs, but these creations of the Turkoman looms are really produced farther west and their main market is Merve, whence another railway crawls south to Kushka beyond the northern frontier of Afghanistan. During the months to come the Bokhara-Termez and Merv-Gushka railways are likely to attract more attention than the lazy life of the Moslem city of Bokhara, where fat mullahs drone out ceremonial prayers in the Registan, or public square. Bokhara is second only to Baku, across the Caspian, as a Pan-Turanian centre and statesmen around the world are wondering what political plots are being hatched beside its stagnant pools and in the shadowy bazaars."

MUCH HALIBUT IS BEING SHIPPED EAST

Big Catches Going Through Prince Rupert; Victorians Forget Taste

Although a steak or baking of halibut may be nothing but a pleasant memory to most Victorians there is an abundance of the white fish passing through Prince Rupert on its way to the markets in Eastern Canada and the United States.

Reports received from Prince Rupert indicate that very cold weather has recently been experienced by the fishermen in Northern waters. A number of halibut boats which have arrived to discharge their cargoes have been enveloped with heavy coatings of ice.

Several Big Catches.

A few days ago a special train consisting of eleven cars filled with frozen halibut left the Northern port for Eastern cities. Although the weather during the past few weeks has been generally stormy and cold, those halibut fishermen who have been carrying on operations have done very well and several large catches are reported. A halibut trawler which berthed at Prince Rupert dock recently was loaded down with 60,000 pounds of this fish. Halibut is quoted at 14 cents a pound.

Herring have not yet commenced to run in large numbers in Northern waters. A big run is expected about the beginning of next month.

MILLS CANNOT CARE FOR LUMBER ORDERS

Australian Merchant Orders Eight Cargoes; Goes to Siberia For Another

British Columbia mills are unable to take care of all the orders which foreign merchants are anxious to place here. James Crockett, of the Gunnerson-Crockett Company, of Sydney, Brisbane and Melbourne, Australia, who has been interviewing lumbermen on the Island and Mainland, has been forced to place an order for 2,000,000 feet of lumber with a Siberian mill through his inability to get local mills to cater to his needs.

Mr. Crockett placed orders for eight cargoes of lumber with British Columbia mills. He attempted to get the operators to take an order for an additional 2,000,000 feet, but they explained that their mills were over-taxed and could not possibly turn out the material.

Greeted With Orders.

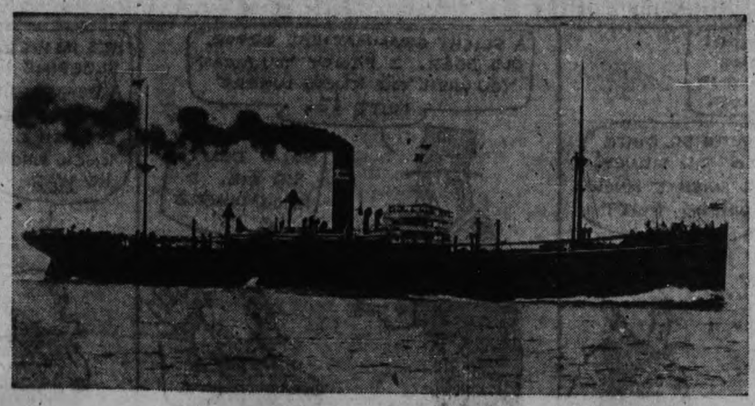

The mills are now polishing off the last of the order of 70,000,000 feet which was placed here by the British Government. The mills have made excellent dispatch of this large order. Instead of the slump which was expected to follow this boom the mill owners have been greeted by a large batch of orders which will keep them fully occupied for many months.

United States is buying heavily and Australia is seeking large shipments, but must be content with only a portion.

ARABIA MARU DUE.

The liner Arabia Maru, of the O. S. K. fleet, is expected to make William Head to-morrow morning with passengers and freight from the Orient.

DUE FROM FAR EAST TO-MORROW

O.S.K. LINER ARABIA MARU

PRINCE RUPERT SOON TO RESUME

Word Brought by Prince George That February 26 Is Tentative Date

Officers of the Grand Trunk Pacific steamship Prince George, in port yesterday morning from the North, expressed the belief that the Prince George would be withdrawn from service for her annual overhaul in about three weeks' time.

The steamship Prince Rupert, which has been out of commission since December 28, will be ready to resume service towards the latter part of this month. It is predicted that the Prince Rupert may re-enter the Northern service on February 26, taking up the schedule from Prince Rupert. Should this be the case the Prince George will make three more northbound trips and will be taken out of commission at the end of February. The Prince Rupert will then maintain the present weekly schedule until the completion of the overhaul of the Prince George at Prince Rupert.

There is every indication that the semi-weekly G. T. P. service will be resumed by the middle of April.

CROWN OF TOLEDO IS NEARING PORT

Harrison Freighter Reported Clearing From San Francisco on Saturday

On the last lap of her voyage from the United Kingdom, the Harrison Direct Line steamship Crown of Toledo cleared from San Francisco for Victoria on Saturday.

The big British freighter, which is built after the design of the steamship Crown of Galicia, but of more modern construction, should reach here on Tuesday night or Wednesday morning. She has several hundred tons of freight aboard, including a consignment of "wet" goods for delivery at Victoria and Vancouver.

This will be the first visit of the Crown of Toledo to this port since the termination of the war. When last here she was under the command of Captain William Laird, now master of the Crown of Galicia.

Following the Crown of Toledo in the Harrison Direct Service will be the steamship Tactician, one of the largest vessels flying the Harrison flag.

Rithet & Co., Agents.

R. P. Rithet & Co. have been appointed local agents for Balfour, Guthrie & Co., and will in future handle the business incident to the call of the Harrison Line steamships at this port. Rithet & Co. acted as agents for the Harrison boats prior to the establishment of offices here by Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

SHORT OF BREATH

Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is; "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected, there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, all-gone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N.S., writes:—"I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

Price 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian West. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

The height is in feet and tenths of a foot, above the average level of lower low water.

Esquimalt.—To find the depth of water on the sill of the dry dock at any tide, add 19.0 feet to the height of high water as above given.

NEW PILOTS MAY BE APPOINTED

Three Vacancies Created by Reorganization of Pilotage Service

Appointments to fill the vacancies created by the reorganization of the pilotage service are expected to be made in the immediate future. Three positions have been made vacant since the new pilotage regulations became operative at the beginning of the year.

Captain B. L. Johnson, D. S. O., has been promoted from the Vancouver pilotage district to the post of Superintendent of Pilotage for British Columbia, with headquarters at Victoria. The age limit has forced into retirement those veteran pilots, Captain Christenson, of Nanaimo, and Captain W. Ettershanks, of Vancouver. The former is now lookout man at Victoria, while the latter acts in the same capacity at Vancouver.

Captain D. Donald, commander of the G. T. P. steamship Prince George, is spoken of as one of the most likely candidates for the pilotage service.

Another Ranching Proposition

This one presents really wonderful possibilities, consisting of about 350 acres situate on the Shuswap River, eight miles from Enderby. About 150 acres of natural meadow from which 300 tons of hay per year is estimated. This tonnage could be doubled if seeded down in clover and timothy. There are thousands of acres of free range land. The Shuswap now overflows in the spring, leaving a deposit of silt as fertilizer. For further particulars apply to A. E. Mitchell, 403 Union Bank, where photographs and Government statistics may be seen. This can be purchased on easy terms.

URGES TURKS BE LEFT IN EUROPE

Emir Ali, of India, Says Temporal Authority Is Essential

London, Feb. 2.—Temporal authority is essential to the Sultan of Turkey and he should be allowed to remain in Constantinople as Caliph of the Faithful, according to Emir Ali, an Indian Privy Councillor, who for the last forty-five years has held many offices in Bengal.

"The proposal to drive the Turks out of Constantinople is a concession to religious fanaticism, and if the Turkish administration is removed from the city the bitterest resentment will manifest itself in India and all Mussulman countries," he said.

About 70,000,000 Sunni Moslems and 12,000,000 Shiah Moslems in India, he said, are in agreement as to the Sultan's continued rule at Constantinople.

Opposed to Bolshevism.

After saying that the principles of Islam were fundamentally opposed to Bolshevism, the Emir went on:

"Maintenance of the temporal authority of the Sultan is necessary. His temporal and spiritual power can not be separated. Moslems were assured in the late war that the Caliphate would not be interfered with and that Constantinople, Thrace and the homeland of the Turkish race would remain in their hands, and on this assurance Mohammedan troops bore their full share of the fighting in various regions."

BRIG.-GEN. HOLMER DIES AT OTTAWA

Was Director-General of Musketry for Department of Militia

Ottawa, Feb. 2—Brig.-Gen. Richard Holmer, C.M.G., Director-General of Musketry at the Department of Militia and Defence, died on Saturday evening after a brief illness of pneumonia. He was born in 1865. Gen. Holmer was one of Canada's noted rifles experts. In 1899 he was adjutant of the Canadian Bisley team and in 1903 adjutant of the Canadian Palmo Trophy team, which shot at Seagirt, N. J., and in 1907 commanded the Canadian Palmo team at Ottawa.

He was twice Mayor of Hull, Que., in 1896 and 1900.

An only son, Lieut. Alexis Holmer, fell in the great war.

A REBUKE FOR PRESIDENT OF C.P.R.

Winnipeg, Feb. 2.—J. D. McArthur, president of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway Company, expressed indignation at the reported statement of E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, to the effect that the road was over-capitalized. Unlike the Canadian Pacific Railway, the main line of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia Railway was not constructed by aid of either Government bonus or land subsidy, Mr. McArthur said. The suggestion of over-capitalization was groundless and showed ignorance of the facts, he declared.

URGE APPOINTMENT OF CITY NURSE

The Anti-Tuberculosis Society Want Successor to Miss Thorn; Matter Imperative

That all the work of the Victoria branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society will count for naught and that the branch will have to go out of business if the City Council does not soon appoint an anti-tubercular nurse to succeed Miss Thom who recently resigned, was the assertion made by an officer of the local branch of the Society. Owing to the lack of funds the branch is unable to pay for the upkeep of a nurse, but in the past has done a magnificent work in co-operation with the city nurse, by providing the very necessary milk, eggs and nourishing foods for indigent tubercular cases in the city.

Miss Thom paid periodical visits to these sufferers and by her splendid work effected the arrest of the insidious disease in many cases, while the preventive measures instituted by her has safeguarded the lives not only of potential sufferers but also of hundreds of citizens. The City Council has been several times approached on the matter of appointing a new anti-tubercular nurse, the suggestion being offered that a Victorian order nurse be appointed in order that the work could be carried on in co-operation with the V. O. N. activities, and thus avoid over-lapping. So far, however, nothing has been done by the Council, although the Health Committee has had the matter under consideration for some time.

The question will again be fully considered at the annual meeting of the Victoria branch of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, to be held in the cafe of the Alexandra Club on Tuesday, February 10 at 2.30. Dean Quainton and Dr. A. G. Price will speak on Anti-Tuberculosis work.

FIRE LOSSES IN 1919.

The destruction by fire of property in the United States and Canada during the year 1919, as compiled from the daily records of The Journal of Commerce, reached the total of $269,000,775. This compares with $317,014,385 the year previous and $267,273,140 for the year 1917. The figures of 1919's estimated property loss by fire represent an enormous economic waste of the wealth of the country, and have only been exceeded twice in history, in 1918 and again in 1906, when the San Francisco conflagration raised the annual loss figures to $459,710,000. The following table gives the record of fire losses in the United States and Canada for each year since 1905:

1919....	$269,000,775	1912....	$225,320,000
1918....	317,014,385	1911....	234,337,250
1917....	267,273,140	1910....	234,470,650
1916....	231,442,995	1909....	203,649,200
1915....	182,836,200	1908....	238,562,250
1914....	235,591,350	1907....	215,671,250

CHICAGO GRAINS QUIET AND FIRM

(By Burdick Bros. & Brett, Ltd.)

Chicago, Feb. 2.—To-day's trading in May corn was done within a range of ⅞ of a cent per bushel. Although most of the trading was done at slightly lower prices than those which prevailed on Saturday, the tone of the market was firm throughout the session. Cash prices were quoted lower, but the premium above the active futures is great enough to absorb moderate recessions in cash prices. The movement in oats was very narrow, final quotations being ¼ below Saturday's last.

STOCK MARKET FURTHER DEPRESSED

Steels and Equipments Lose Early Grains; Rails Firm To-day

New York, Feb. 2.—The week in Wall Street started with higher prices for active issues, but the gains were wiped out during the first hour's trading and stocks were pressed for sale during the greater part of the session. The railroad group enjoyed an hour's strength during mid-session, when Southern Pacific and Canadian Pacific gained a point. The weakness in Sterling toward the close influenced further liquidation, last prices being near the day's lowest.

BAKER ACQUITTED ON SECOND CHARGE

Was Accused of Aiding a Chinaman to Enter Canada; Legal Argument

Following a very lengthy legal argument in the provincial police court this morning between Frank Higgins, K. C., counsel for the Dominion Immigration authorities, and R. H. Pooley, acting for the accused, Magistrate Jay this morning dismissed the charge against Fred Baker of aiding and abetting a Chinaman, Chang Pai Ho, to enter Canada.

Last week Baker was arraigned in the provincial police court on a charge of harboring Chang, and was dismissed by the magistrate on the ground that the Chinaman did not come within the restricted classes designated in the Chinese Immigration Act. Chang is a member of the Chinese Labor Corps en route from France to China, and while waiting at William Head for a boat to take him across the Pacific, he escaped two weeks ago, and was later discovered working on a farm at Gordon Head.

When the first charge failed the immigration authorities decided to press the second charge, and the result was a lengthy legal argument, which terminated in the magistrate ordering the case dismissed.

SETTLERS' RIGHTS

No Intimation From the Dominion Authorities as to Whether 1919 Amending Act Will Be Allowed

According to a statement made by Premier Oliver this morning the Government has received no intimation from Ottawa relative to the Vancouver Island Settlers' Right Act which passed through its stages in the Legislature last session in its re-enacting form.

It will be recalled that the Dominion Government disallowed the 1918 measure and the bill introduced by the Hon. William Sloan, Minister of Mines, last year was in the nature of a formality through whose agency the matter would again be tested. His Honor withheld his consent to the bill pending the further consideration of His Excellency the Governor-General.

The Dominion Government may refuse to accept the bill any time within one year from the time of its transmission. There are a few weeks of grace left in which the Minister of Justice may make known his decision.

ARGUES PROS AND CONS OF DOCTRINE

Bolshevism Subject of Debate at Crystal Theatre; Crowded House

Pro-Bolsheviks and anti-Bolsheviks jammed the Crystal Theatre Saturday night to hear Bolshevism debated by W. E. Peirce, local radical, who admits he is a Bolshevist, and Joseph B. Clearihue, former Rhodes scholar and now a lawyer here.

At five minutes to eight o'clock crowds jammed the street in front of the theatre clamoring to get in. Guards had to urge people to move on so that the street would not be blocked to traffic.

The Bolshevik Doctrine

Mr. Peirce opened the debate by recalling what he had said recently about being a Bolshevist, and gave his reasons for being such. These reasons were:

1. The Bolsheviks put first things first. They recognize that labor is the first thing and that money is the second thing.
2. The Bolsheviks recognized that the recent war was not for the workers.
3. The Bolsheviks are internationalists, believing that there should be no boundary lines separating the human family, and that nationality causes wars.
4. The Bolsheviks are always ready to make peace but not peace at any price.
5. The Bolshevik method of election is the most democratic.
6. The Bolsheviks in Russia are not afraid to make mistakes, to admit their mistakes and then to rectify them.
7. The Bolsheviks always go to the root of the trouble.
8. The Bolsheviks are not afraid to fight, nor too proud to fight.

Their Policies

Mr. Peirce claimed that the Russians by sacrificing themselves saved the world from the capitalist. Among the things the Bolsheviks have done, Mr. Peirce included: Extension of the franchise to cover ninety per cent. of the population; giving of the lands to the peasants, and factories and industries to the people; nationalization of the banks; cutting down of high salaries to a common level; the publication of all secret treaties; helping the world by the creation of the revolution in Germany; opening up schools and libraries for the people; giving free food to thousands of children; holding down prices by the extermination of speculators; giving good homes to the people; establishing freedom of religion; giving women the same rights as men; raising the age of marriage consent to eighteen years for men and sixteen years for girls; standing out for fair conditions for labor in other countries by refusing to admit into Russia goods unless they were manufactured under fair conditions.

Mr. Peirce warmed up the audience at the opening by vigorously condemning the newspapers here. He called them liars.

Not Against Labor.

"Because I am speaking against Bolshevism to-night I don't want anyone to think that I am out of sympathy with the aspirations of labor," said Mr. Clearihue in his reply. "I believe that labor has not received its due reward and that in the future it must receive a greater and more sympathetic consideration.

"Mr. Peirce has called himself a Bolshevist. But if he calls himself a Bolshevist he must accept the foundation stones of that doctrine.

"What is a Bolshevist? In the first place he is a Marxian Socialist of the most extreme type. Socialists may be roughly classified into Socialists by political action, by evolution and by revolution. Marx lived through these three stages. In youth he was revolutionary, political in his years of transition, and evolutionary in the period of maturity.

"The revolutionary Socialists, the communists by direct action, believe in abolishing capitalism, ownership of property, inheritance of possession and the wage system of labor and capital through forceful transformation of the institutions of society from the outside. They believe the proletariat have the physical power to effect the transformation and that the end justifies the means in any way, time or place. Marx opposed revolutionary Socialism as early as 1850.

"This latter doctrine is the doctrine of Bolshevism.

"Don't let anyone try to make you think that Socialism means Bolshevism."

Mr. Clearihue explained that the Bolsheviki first made their appearance as a separate unit at the convention of the Social Democratic party in London in 1903. This party split into majority faction headed by Lenine adopting the name Bolshevik and the minority faction took the name of Menshevik.

"As time went on," he continued, "the cleavage increased. The Bolsheviki constantly became more radical. Lenine opposed any co-operation with the burgeois parties. The Bolsheviki even mistrust the peasants. They have even little faith in the working class, and pin their hope on the more illiterate working man.

"Bolshevism thus stands for a revolution and dictatorship by a minority.

What Policy Stands For.

"As my worthy friend says he is a Bolshevist, he must advocate a revolution, the overturning of our present form of government and the establishment of a dictatorship of the proletariat. If he doesn't believe in that then he isn't a Bolshevist, and is masquerading under false colors.

"Listen to what the Bolshevist policy writen in the very words of Lenine taken from his own book 'Soviets at Work.'

"'Dictatorship is a great word. And great words must not be used in vain. A dictatorship is an iron rule, with revolutionary daring and swift and merciless in the suppression of the exploiters as well as of the thugs.

"'It would be the most absurd opportunism to suppose that the transition from capitalism to socialism is possible without compulsion and dictatorship.

"'It is not hard to see that during any transition from capitalism to socialism a dictatorship is necessary. In the first place it is impossible to conquer and destroy capitalism without the merciless suppression of the resistance of the exploiters.'

Again Lenine in the New International of April, 1918, says: 'Just as one hundred and fifty thousand lordly landowners under Czarism dominated the one hundred and thirty million Russian peasants, so two hundred thousand members of the Bolshevik party are imposing their proletariat will on the mass, but this time in the interests of the latter.'

"Lenine in his own book acknowledges that shooting on the spot without trial has been countenanced and permitted.

"Bolshevism again is opposed to universal secret and direct suffrage. This is the very basis of every modern democracy."

Who Cannot Vote.

Mr. Clearihue then went on to give the various classes of persons excluded from the right to vote.

"Democracy implies the rule of the people in the interests of all the people, Mr. Clearihue went on." Bolshevism implies the dictatorship of a few in the interests of a few. Bolshevism demands the suppression of all freedom of the press and speech unless it preaches the doctrines of the proletariat.

"Bolshevism is the most vile usurpation of power by a minority. That is what my honorable friend wants in British Columbia.

"Mr. Peirce asked me to show why Bolshevism had prospered if it was not successful. My answer is that Bolshevism is not successful, has not prospered and only holds power by force alone.

"Under the Bolsheviks, guilds of peasants were formed to take over the land. The best lands were allotted to the first guilds formed. Wage labor was prohibited and no man could have more land than he could work. The result of this order was to require a great reduction in the output of any farm, for suppose a man should have strawberry lands, then he could not plant any more strawberries than he and his family could pick because he could not hire labor. This meant that every farmer must be idle two-thirds of the year.

"Then the Bolshevik programme called for an allotment of domesticated animals and machinery. To ask a peasant to divide up his working animals was as bad as asking him to divide up his children.

Production Fails.

"It wasn't long before production fell. The crop of 1918-1919 was only fifty-five per cent. of normal. The guilds soon found that they had to hire help and within six months of the revolution, land animals and machinery were openly sold.

"The cities were starved and Lenine put in his red guards to seize the crops for the cities and many brutal executions followed. Bolshevism as a peasant theory has miserably failed."

Mr. Clearihue quoted figures to show the falling off in industrial production since the Bolsheviki became busy.

"Workers developed extravagant demands in respect to shorter hours and higher wages," he continued.

"The Bolshevist method of running the army without difference of ranks and election of officers has also failed. They started out by giving all power to the soldier soviets to elect their officers from amongst themselves. It so sadly failed and undermined discipline that a decree of April 29, 1918, declared that in time of war all command should be nominated by the Commander of the units and in time of peace the selection was confined to those especially qualified. Thus the selection of officers is now a thing of the past."

Related To 1918.

In replying Mr. Peirce asserted that all Mr. Clearihue's material related only to 1918.

Mr. Clearihue answered many questions.

E. W. Ellis presided, and kept the applause and demonstrations at the statements of the speakers within some semblance of order.

Mr. Pierce has issued a free-for-all challenge for another Bolsheviki debate next Saturday night.

Concert and Dance.—At the Esquimalt Military Hospital to-night, commencing at 8 o'clock, a concert and dance will be held. The programme has been arranged by Mrs. Dalby Morkill. All ex-patients and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

POLICE THINK THEY HAVE HALL PROWLER

Lee Yuen Appeared on Police Court This Morning; Pleaded Not Guilty

On two separate charges of stealing overcoats Lee Yuen appeared in the police court this morning. He pleaded not guilty to each charge. On the request of counsel, W. C. Moresby, the case was remanded by Magistrate Jay until to-morrow morning.

Lee Yuen was arrested after a chase by Detectives Phipps and Siciliano on Friday afternoon last. The officers noticed him enter a house and come running out with an overcoat on. They were proceeding to question the man when he started to run. The detectives gave chase and caught Yuen when his escape was blocked by several motor cars.

During the past few weeks the police have had numerous complaints of overcoats disappearing from the halls of houses. The detectives believe that some man has been prowling about the city and, on seeing the front door of a house open, has entered and taken any clothing that was handy.

Two overcoats, one belonging to P. J. Huddlestone and the other to J. Cochrane, have been recovered by the police. Several others reported stolen have yet to be found.

BROKE OFF STEPS TO GAIN ENTRANCE INTO OPIUM JOINT

Squad of Policemen Makes Sensational Raid, But Only Captures One Man

Baffled in his efforts to force an entrance through either the door or the walls of a suite of rooms situated on the third story of a building at 549 Fisgard Street, Police Sergeant Fry knocked two steps off the stairway and to his surprise found that this provided a small opening into the suspected opium den. Through this hole the sergeant crawled and opened the door allowing the constables to enter. One aged Chinaman was arrested. The others who had been smoking made their escape through a hole in the ceiling.

Yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock Sergt. Fry, with Constables Jones, R. Forster, Burnett, Heatley and Pook, set out on their raid. Before reaching the door they were detected by the lookout and the alarm was given. Bolts and bars were immediately dropped and the progress of the police was impeded. Sergt. Fry weilded a 12-pound hammer and attempted to knock the door off its hinges but the blows had no effect. The officers then tried to batter a hole through the walls, but the Chinese had re-inforced vulnerable points.

A Happy Thought.

Just as the police were to abandon their effort Sergt. Fry decided to see what was beneath the stairway. Several hefty blows removed two steps and the officer crawled through and found himself in the opium joint. An old Chinaman named Sing was running about greatly excited, trying to find some exit. He was too shaky to attempt to climb through the hole in the ceiling.

When the squad entered the den an immediate search was made for opium paraphernalia. The room was full of opium smoke. Sergt. Fry climbed through the hole in the ceiling and found many of the accessories used in smoking the drug, but failed to locate any of the men. Another officer discovered a pair of opium scales down a deep chute. Much of the opium gear was shoved into the flue of a chimney and went to the basement.

Sing was charged in the police court this morning as being an inmate of an opium joint and pleaded "not guilty." He stated that he had only recently moved into the quarters, and knew nothing about opium being smoked there.

Magistrate Jay dismissed the Chinaman. He said that it was due to the infirmity of the man that he did not succeed in escaping with the rest, but warned him that if he again appeared in court he would be punished.

Strengthening Dens.

As a result of the activities of Sergt. Fry and his squad the opium and gambling dens in Chinatown are being strongly re-inforced. Last week a squad gained admittance to an opium joint through a weakness in the walls. This defect in the defences of the dens is being rapidly remedied and stout two-by-fours are being used to strengthen the walls.

Many Visitors to See Portrait.—A large number of visitors seized the opportunity furnished by Miss Southwell on Saturday afternoon of viewing her portrait of Sir Arthur Currie, painted during his recent visit here. The young artist received numerous congratulations upon the success of her portrayal of the distinguished Victorian and many prophecies were made concerning her future success in the world of art. During the afternoon tea was served and a musical programme enhanced the social pleasures of the occasion. Miss Southwell was assisted in serving tea by the Misses Bagshaw and Pottinger. Owing to the fact that so many people desirous of seeing the portrait were unable to attend the private view, Miss Southwell has arranged to hold a public exhibition of the painting on Wednesday afternoon at the Arts and Crafts Club, Union Bank Building, when all interested will be warmly welcomed

WILL TAKE HUGE JITNEY PETITION TO LEGISLATURE

Jitney Men Say 15,000 Names Will Protest Proposed Jitney Regulation

Unable to swerve the City Council from its determination to regulate jitneys on Victoria Streets, the Victoria Jitney Association intends to continue its fight in the Legislature. The question will be pressed before the Private Bills Committee of the House in the near future when a petition, which is now being circulated and which, it is expected, will contain fifteen thousand names, will be presented by officials of the Association.

Following the decision of the City Council on Friday to ask the Legislature for power to regulate and prohibit jitneys here, the Jitney Association started to-day to circulate eighty - five petitions protesting against such powers being granted. The petitions, which already have been largely signed, set forth that the signatories believe that if the Legislature grants the powers the city asks in its Private Bill, the regulations imposed on jitneys as a result will be drastic and will amount to the prohibition of jitney operation. The petitioners therefore pray that no powers be given to the city to prohibit or regulate jitneys operating in the city.

Expect 15,000 Names.

"We expect to have 15,000 names by noon Wednesday," A. Gilson, President of the Jitney Association, stated to-day. "There has been absolutely no difficulty in getting names. Indeed, not one business man on Government Street refused to sign the petition and some of them requested that a space be left so that they could specify their reasons for signing them."

The petitions are being circulated by members of the Association all over the city.

Having failed to block the insertion of a jitney prohibition in the City's Private Bill, Alderman A. E. Todd announced to-day that he would appear before the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature when the City's Bill is being considered, to protest against the proposed legislation.

The Private Bill probably will come up for final discussion at the City Council meeting to-night. Little argument on it is expected, as its contentious portions have been disposed of.

EXCHANGE BREAKS TO NEW RECORD MARK; MONEY RATES SOAR

Sterling collapsed to-day, breaking five points to a new low and discount on Canadian funds soared to a new high of 12¾ per cent. in New York to-day.

The previous low on sterling attained at the end of last week was $3.49. On Saturday it rallied to over $3.50. To-day's close was $3.44¾.

With the break in sterling, the New York market turned weak throughout the whole list. Call money which went up to 20 per cent. because of the month and settlements on Friday, started out to-day by going to 16 per cent. C. P. R. was 127¾ at the close with a high of 128¾ for the day.

CITY BONDS SELL RAPIDLY OVER THE CITY HALL COUNTER

More Than Half of Large Issue Purchased in Few Hours

The city's improved financial condition appears to be reflected in the quick sale of a large part of a bond issue floated on Saturday. The issue totalled $213,465.32 and $110,000 had been sold over the counter at the City Hall up to noon to-day.

The issue was the first the city has sold over the counter for a year. It is the opinion of the civic authorities that the public should be given an opportunity to purchase city bonds and consequently it was decided to sell this particular issue direct instead of through the Dominion Securities Corporation, as has been customary.

The bonds were local improvement debentures bearing six per cent interest, and were issued at par.

The purchases so far have consisted of two $50,000 lots and a $10,000 lot. The British America Bond Company intends to purchase a portion of the issue immediately.

TWO MEN BLAMED BY DYING MAN

Malaspina Inlet Rancher Was Shot in Knee and Succumbed

Vancouver, Feb. 2.—Gus Bloom, a rancher on the shore of Malaspina Inlet near Lund, died at Powell River at 8 a. m. Sunday from shock and loss of blood which ensued when his knee was badly shattered by a revolver bullet. The wound was received when he went out in his boat to a launch from which he heard cries and in his ante-mortem statement in the possession of Inspector Owen, of the Provincial Police, he is said to have named Oscar Ross and Charles Anderson as the men responsible. Constable Hadley has been sent north from Powell River to arrest these men and to secure all available evidence.

In his dying statement Bloom said that on Saturday between 4 and 5 p. m. he heard shouts from a launch and put off in his motorboat. On nearing the craft he found that its engine was stalled and that the occupants, whom he named as Ross and Anderson, were fighting.

One of them was waving a revolver and the weapon was pointed at Bloom by design or accident. He made a grab for the weapon and was shot in the knee.

He was able to regain the beach in his boat and neighbors took him to Bishop's Landing, where Peter Bishop took charge and conveyed him to Powell River. Dr. Henderson attended the wounded man but he died on Sunday morning.

The body reached Vancouver this morning on the steamer Charmer.

NEW TIDE OF SPIRITUAL LIFE

Forward Movement Shows Fresh Current Is Moving in Presbyterian Church

(By Rev. A. F. Munro.)

The Forward Movement is daily becoming a greater reality in the Presbyterian Church. Organization, too long delayed in Victoria, is being daily perfected, and all concerned are now throwing themselves heart and soul into the work. Some feared that this movement was but a new name for old methods of raising money, but every day reveals the truth that a new tide of spiritual life is flowing in the church. One cheering manifestation of this is the growing number of young men and women who are offering for service at home and abroad.

The Family Altar.

The Forward Movement programme covers a period of five years. Its objectives are essentially spiritual. A definite effort is being made to enlist a large proportion of the membership as "Comrades of Intercession," who will daily pray for the church and all its enterprises. The practice of family worship is to be encouraged by placing within the reach of members literature that will help them in erecting the family altar. A steady effort is to be executed to develop a new sense of stewardship, that all who call themselves by the name of Christ may devote more of their time, energy and means to the building up of His kingdom, with the object of reaching those now outside the church each congregation is setting up a committee to recruit new members. The Women's Missionary Society has already shown what can be done along this line. They are now engaged in a canvass of every woman in the church and are personally inviting each of them to join their society. Some centres already report an increase of fifty per cent. Let the men do likewise! A wholehearted effort along this line might transform many congregations.

Funds Required.

The immediate business in hand is to raise $4,000,000 as a thank offering to God for peace and victory, to be used for providing the equipment which is absolutely necessary if the church is to go forward. During the years of war the church has stood aside and given a clear road to the various war funds. As a result she has fallen in arrears in all kinds of material equipment. There is needed at once in the Home Mission field over 300 churches and 270 manses. The Presbyterians of Victoria can find almost at their door an illustration of the urgent need of manses. A missionary, who is a married man with a family, was sent to one of the stations last summer. He had to rent a house quite unsuitable, and some months later moved to another. Two weeks after being settled the house was sold, and he had to move again, and now lives in a most uncomfortable home. Under these conditions a man cannot serve the church as he ought. There are hundred of cases worse than this. A mission station is not strong enough to erect its own buildings. The Forward Movement means that by a great unselfish effort the whole church will combine to remove such hindrances by helping the weaker centres to do what is beyond their reach if left to themselves. The sum necessary to erect the buildings needed in the Home Mission field is $1,700,000. Over $600,000 is required for buildings for social work, in the great cities, rescue homes and hospitals.

Aged Ministers.

One item should appeal not only to the sympathy, but to the honor of every Presbyterian. It has long been felt that the church has been unjust to her aged and infirm ministers. Owing to the increase in the cost of living what was a mere pittance has become insufficient to keep starvation at bay. After a lifetime of service, and after having paid a small yearly premium the maximum allowance is $500 per annum, but most of the men get less. A sum of $500,000 is asked to provide an endowment, the interest on which will make it possible to raise at once the annual grant to retired ministers.

On the foreign field money is needed as urgently as at home. Schools, hospitals and houses that should have been built years ago can now be proceeded with if the financial campaign is a success; $800,000 is allocated to this purpose. The success that has attended the work abroad is an imperative call to go forward from Him who commanded that His gospel be preached in all the world.

If Presbyterians only realize the urgent requirements of the situation, if they remember for how much they have to give God thanks in the gift of victory and peace, the material barriers that now impede progress will be swept aside, "every mountain and hill shall be made low," and the way will be cleared for the church to go forward.

A Youthful Reminiscence of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King

By One Who Knows Him.

It has been truly said, "that the boy is oftimes father of the man."

In so far as this saying shall prove true in W. L. Mackenzie King will the Liberal party in Canada have reason to congratulate themselves upon their recent choice of a leader.

Looking backwards over a long term of years since our first acquaintance with the little laddie during his kindergarten days, and following him upward through the grades of public and High School life in Berlin, the Kitchener of to-day—we find that he left an unbroken record of successful development, unmarred by black marks of delinquency or misconduct.

The principal of the public and County Model Schools had many devices by which to increase the efficiency of the teaching and discipline of the schools, and keep up their high reputation as second to none in the rank of Provincial Public Schools.

As an auxiliary in the higher rooms the Master had an unknown force quietly at work, which in private he spoke of as his "Knights of the Round Table." These were boys, who unknown to themselves had been tested and found to be truthful, honorable and fully worthy of confidence. The co-operation and help of these pupils was relied upon to secure deeper interest in the work and discipline of the rooms. First, by testing, the master found he had something sterling in these boys to appeal to and trust in.

These principles he worked upon, unknown to the pupils themselves, and rarely was he disappointed in results.

During a long principalship of thirty-three years many relays of boys found place among these unknown "knights," none of whom ever left a purer or more helpful moral influence than that of W. L. Mackenzie King. Later on, the Toronto University course fully bore out the rich promise of his boyhood days.

That of Harvard must have been equally as satisfactory and well-sustained as at its close—we have been told—he was offered a professorship within the classic walls of that university—no small distinction for so young a Canadian!

After the lapse of several years we again met Mackenzie King on a return from the Coast, where he had been engaged as Secretary of a "Royal Commission of Inquiry" into labor troubles among British Columbia workers. It was a pleasure to meet him in his official position and to feel how truly his heart beat in sympathetic protest against all forms of injustice and oppression—as it had ever done in his boyish days.

In the higher tide of this after war democracy—now forever sweeping away many of the old landmarks and limitations of a passing age and ushering in a fuller spirit of justice and equality among the races of men it is particularly fitting that here—as in the Motherland—a man whose ancestors stood for the people should be chosen as the leader of a great political party so largely representing the voice of the people.

In the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King we have the grandson of a past-patriot, who, at a critical period in our history, stood out for the rights of the masses against the growing exclusiveness of the classes in the responsible government of Canada. We realize that in the world of to-day the vox populi in the councils of the nations is more loudly insisted upon than ever in the past and, we believe, that in so far as the people of this great free land of ours shall continue to follow on after the ideals of truth, justice and freedom will they successfully uphold the hands of their chosen leader—the Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King.

How is this? The difference between the £ in England and the £ in Canada now absorbs customs charges. Recent shipments of wool blankets, flannelettes, union shirtings, suiting flannels, Turkish towels, etc., all offered at new prices.

Soon after they had seated themselves at the table the youngster piped up with, "Daddy, why do all the men say 'whoop' to their soup?"—Harper's Magazine.

The older a man grows the less he is disposed to see how near he can skate to a danger sign.
